of the most important issues discussed in contemporary constitutional law the relationship between constituent and constituted power the source of constitutional legitimacy the challenge of foreign and expert intervention and the role of comparative constitutional studies in constitution making The volume will be a valuable resource for those interested in the phenomenon of imposed constitutionalism as well as anyone interested in the current trends in the study of comparative constitutional law finds that going forward the role of market definition in dynamic contexts needs to focus on its function of market characterisation rather than on the assessment of market power
