overhear some elders making secret preparations for a marriage Voices of the Other Roderick McGillis, 2013-05-13 This book offers a variety of approaches to children s literature from a postcolonial perspective that includes discussions of cultural appropriation race theory pedagogy as a colonialist activity and multiculturalism The eighteen essays divide into three sections Theory Colonialism Postcolonialism The first section sets the theoretical framework for postcolonial studies essays here deal with issues of otherness and cultural difference as well as the colonialist implications of pedagogic practice These essays confront our relationships with the child and childhood as sites for the exertion of our authority and control Section 2 presents discussions of the colonialist mind set in children s and young adult texts from the turn of the century Here works by writers of animal stories in Canada the U S and Britain works of early Australian colonialist literature and Frances Hodgson Burnett s A Little Princess come under the scrutiny of our postmodern reading practices Section 3 deals directly with contemporary texts for children that manifest both a postcolonial and a neo colonial content In this section the longest in the book we have studies of children s literature from Canada Australia Africa the Caribbean and the United States

The Bride Of Texas Josef Skvorecky, 2012-07-31 From the widely acclaimed author of Dvorak in Love and The Engineer of Human Souls comes an unusual Civil War novel based on the documented memories of Czech soldiers who fought for the Union in the 26th Wisconsin battalion under General William Tecumseh Sherman New Fiction in English from Africa: West, East, and South André Viola, Jacqueline Bardolph, Denise Coussey, 2022-05-20 The term recent or new covers novels and some short fiction published between 1980 and 1995 a period characterized by growing pessimism about the state of affairs in both East and West Africa The section on South Africa deals more narrowly with the 1985 95 watershed marking the end of official apartheid and the beginning of reconstruction The three sections aim at giving a coherent picture of the main directions in production highlighting three main centres of interest Nigeria Kenya and the Republic of South Africa although some novelists from neighbouring countries are also considered such as Kofi Awoonor from Ghana Nuruddin Farah from Somalia and M G Vassanji and Abdulrazak Gurnah from Tanzania The evaluations conducted in the three sections lead to the emergence of a number of common themes in particular the writers predilection for topicality the role of the past and the controversy over the idea of the nation Central themes also include the role of women in fending for themselves both in rural and in urban environments A further major theme is the role of the past the Nigerian civil war the Mau Mau period in Kenya the revisiting of slavery the refurbishing of myth the questioning of historical reconstructions The preoccupation of the West East and South African novel with the idea and ideal of the nation is explored particularly in the context of migrancy hybridity and transculturalism characterizing the anglophone diaspora The volume is aimed at literary scholars and students and more generally readers of fiction seeking an introduction to contemporary literary developments in various parts of sub Saharan anglophone Africa No categorical distinction is drawn between popular and high literature Though still selective and not intended as an exhaustive catalogue the present survey covers a large number of titles Rather than resorting to broad and ultimately somewhat abstract thematic categories the contributors endeavour to keep control over this mass of material by applying a micro thematic taxonomy This approach well tested in the tradition of literary studies within France groups works analytically and evaluatively in terms of such categories as actional motifs plot frames and sociologically relevant locations or topics thereby enabling a clearer focus on the dynamics of preoccupation and tendency that form networks of affinity across the fiction produced in the period surveyed

Feminism and Contemporary Women Writers Radha Chakravarty, 2014-05-30 This book attempts to deal with the problem of literary subjectivity in theory and practice The works of six contemporary women writers Doris Lessing Anita Desai Mahasweta Devi Buchi Emecheta Margaret Atwood and Toni Morrison are discussed as potential ways of testing and expanding the theoretical debate A brief history of subjectivity and subject formation is reviewed in the light of the works of thinkers such as Hobbes Hume Kant Hegel Marx Nietzsche Raymond Williams and Stephen Greenblatt and the work of leading feminists is also seen contributing to the debate substantially

West African Women in the Diaspora Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2021-09-08 This book examines fictional works by women authors who have left their homes in West Africa and now live as members of the diaspora In recent years a compelling array of critically acclaimed fiction by women in the West African diaspora has shifted the direction of the African novel away from post colonial themes of nationhood decolonization and cultural authenticity and towards explorations of the fluid and shifting constructions of identity in transnational spaces Drawing on works by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Buchi Emecheta Ama Ata Aidoo Sefi Atta Chika Unigwe and Taiye Selasie this book interrogates the ways in which African diaspora women s fiction portrays the realities of otherness hybridity and marginalized existence of female subjects beyond Africa s borders Overall the book demonstrates that life in the diaspora is an uncharted journey of expanded opportunities along with paradoxical realities of otherness Providing a vivid and composite portrait of African women s experiences in the diasporic landscape this book will be of interest to researchers of migration and diaspora topics and African women s and world literature
