Scott Fitzgerald in Context Bryant Mangum,2013-03-18 The fiction of F Scott Fitzgerald serves as a compelling and incisive chronicle of the Jazz Age and Depression Era This collection explores the degree to which Fitzgerald was in tune with and keenly observant of the social historical and cultural contexts of the 1920s and 1930s Original essays from forty international scholars survey a wide range of critical and biographical scholarship published on Fitzgerald examining how it has evolved in relation to critical and cultural trends The essays also reveal the micro contexts that have particular relevance for Fitzgerald s work from the literary traditions of naturalism realism and high modernism to the emergence of youth culture and prohibition early twentieth century fashion architecture and design and Hollywood underscoring the full extent to which Fitzgerald internalized the world around him Poetry Kaleidoscope

Nicolae Sfetcu,2014-05-12 Introduction in poetry nature of poetry tools history terms periods styles and movements technical means tropes measures of verse verse forms national poetry Poetry ancient Greek poieo I create is traditionally a written art form although there is also an ancient and modern poetry which relies mainly upon oral or pictorial representations in which human language is used for its aesthetic qualities in addition to or instead of its notional and semantic content The increased emphasis on the aesthetics of language and the deliberate use of features such as repetition meter and rhyme are what are commonly used to distinguish poetry from prose but debates over such distinctions still persist while the issue is confounded by such forms as prose poetry and poetic prose Some modernists such as the Surrealists approach this problem of definition by defining poetry not as a literary genre within a set of genres but as the very manifestation of human imagination the substance which all creative acts derive from Gathering Leaves and Lifting Words Justin Thomas

McDaniel,2010-12-01 Winner of the Henry J Benda Prize sponsored by the Association for Asian Studies Gathering Leaves and Lifting Words examines modern and premodern Buddhist monastic education traditions in Laos and Thailand Through five centuries of adaptation and reinterpretation of sacred texts and commentaries Justin McDaniel traces curricular variations in Buddhist oral and written education that reflect a wide array of community goals and values He depicts Buddhism as a series of overlapping processes bringing fresh attention to the continuities of Theravada monastic communities that have endured despite regional and linguistic variations Incorporating both primary and secondary sources from Thailand and Laos he examines premodern inscriptional codicological anthropological art historical ecclesiastical royal and French colonial records By looking at modern sermons and even television programs and websites he traces how pedagogical techniques found in premodern palm leaf manuscripts are pervasive in modern education As the first comprehensive study of monastic education in Thailand and Laos Gathering Leaves and Lifting Words will appeal to a wide audience of scholars and students interested in religious studies anthropology social and intellectual history and pedagogy

Medieval Jewish Philosophy and Its Literary Forms Aaron W. Hughes, James T. Robinson, 2019-07-11 This well written accessible essay collection demonstrates a maturation in Jewish studies and medieval philosophy Choice Too often the study of philosophical texts is carried out in ways that do not pay significant attention to how the ideas contained within them are presented articulated and developed This was not always the case The contributors to this collected work consider Jewish philosophy in the medieval period when new genres and forms of written expression were flourishing in the wake of renewed interest in ancient philosophy Many medieval Jewish philosophers were highly accomplished poets for example and made conscious efforts to write in a poetic style This volume turns attention to the connections that medieval Jewish thinkers made between the literary the exegetical the philosophical and the mystical to shed light on the creativity and diversity of medieval thought As they broaden the scope of what counts as medieval Jewish philosophy the essays collected here consider questions about how an argument is formed how text is put into the service of philosophy and the social and intellectual environment in which philosophical texts were produced
