The Restoration of Paintings in Paris, 1750-1815 No  mie   tienne, 2017-02-21 The decades following the 1973 publication of Alessandro Conti's Storia del Restauro have seen considerable scholarly interest in the development of restoration in France in the second half of the eighteenth century A number of technical treatises and biographies of restorers have offered insight into restoration practice The Restoration of Paintings in Paris 1750 1815 however is the first book to situate this work within the broader historical and philosophical contexts of the time Drawing on previously unpublished primary material from archives in Paris Berlin Rome and Venice No mie tienne combines art history with anthropology and sociology to survey the waning decades of the Ancien R gime and early post Revolution France Initial chapters present the diversity of restoration practice encompassing not only royal institutions and the Louvre museum but also private art dealers artists and craftsmen and examine questions of trade secrecy and the changing role of the restorer Following chapters address the influence of restoration and exhibition on the aesthetic understanding of paintings as material objects The book closes with a discussion of the institutional and political uses of restoration along with an art historical consideration of such key concepts as authenticity originality and stability of artworks emphasizing the multilayered dimension of paintings by such important artists as Titian and Raphael There is also a useful dictionary of the main restorers active in France between 1750 and 1815

A new interpretation of the development of artistic modernity in eighteenth century France What can be gained from considering a painting not only as an image but also a material object How does the painter s own experience of the process of making matter for our understanding of both the painting and its maker The Painter s Touch addresses these questions to offer a radical reinterpretation of three paradigmatic French painters of the eighteenth century In this beautifully illustrated book Ewa Lajer Burcharth provides close readings of the works of Fran ois Boucher Jean Sim on Chardin and Jean Honor Fragonard entirely recasting our understanding of these painters practice Using the notion of touch she examines the implications of their strategic investment in materiality and sheds light on the distinct contribution of painting to the culture of the Enlightenment Lajer Burcharth traces how the distinct logic of these painters work the operation of surface in Boucher the deep materiality of Chardin and the dynamic morphological structure in Fragonard contributed to the formation of artistic identity Through the notion of touch she repositions these painters in the artistic culture of their time shifting attention from institutions such as the academy and the Salon to the realms of the market the medium and the body Lajer Burcharth analyzes Boucher s commercial tact Chardin s interiorized craft and Fragonard s materialization of eros Foregrounding the question of experience that of the painters and of the people they represent she shows how painting as a medium contributed to the Enlightenment s discourse on the self in both its individual and social functions By examining what paintings actually say in brushstrokes texture and paint The Painter s Touch transforms our understanding of the role of painting in the emergence of modernity and provides new readings of some of the most important and beloved works of art of the era Historical Writing in Britain, 1688-1830 B. Dew,F. Price,2014-10-21 Historical Writing in Britain 1688 1830 explores a series of debates concerning the nature and value of the past in the long eighteenth century The essays investigate a diverse range of subjects including art history biography historical poetry and novels as well as addressing more conventional varieties of historical writing Austrian Information ,1991 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1892 Leonardo Da Vinci's Treatise of Painting Richard Shaw Pooler,2020-10-06 This book traces the story of the world's greatest treatise on painting Leonardo Da Vinci's Treatise of Painting It combines an extensive body of literature about the Treatise with original research to offer a unique perspective on Its origins and history of how it survived the dispersal of manuscripts Its contents their significance and how Leonardo developed his Renaissance Theory of Art The development of both the abridged and complete printed editions How the printed editions have influenced treatises and art history throughout Europe the Eastern Mediterranean and America from the Seventeenth to the Twentieth Centuries Educational Times ,1887 Interart Poetics ,2025-02-03 In this anthology are gathered 28 essays devoted to the interrelations of the arts and media They present together the current state of the emerging field of Interart Studies The contributors Stephen Greenblatt Claus Cl ver Erika Fischer Lichte John Neubauer Steven Paul Scher Walter Bernhart Ulrich Weisstein Eric T Haskell Eric Vos Thomas Elsaesser among others are leading international scholars in the fields of Art History Literary Criticism Musicology Film Theatre and Media Studies In challenging ways they promote interdisciplinary strategies in the study of the traditional arts dance literature music painting sculpture theatre etc as well as of the modern media film TV video computer generated arts etc The essays collected engage in a broad perspective of topics approached from varying theoretical methodological or ideological viewpoints No single thread runs through the diversely conceived essays yet it is evident that what all contributors appear to envision is the importance today of investigations into the problems of what might be called the interart or intermedia discourse Aimed at university teachers scholars students and even artists this book will meet the demands from those interested in modern modes of interart and intermedia analysis Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson,2024-10-28 Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three a s of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present
