Healing Insanity Patrick E. Iroegbu, 2010-06-01 Healing Insanity A Study of Igbo Medicine in Contemporary Nigeria is an original and in depth study on endogenous medical system in an African society It is craftily written and provides solid insight through case studies and theory into how insanity affects patients and the society Particularly it explores various collective representations and strategies regarding insanity and healing as it examines the healing institutions healers and ritual cults The central question is given the patterns of healing how do the Igbo shape the incidence and symptoms of insanity define its aetiology and provide healers with culture specific resources and skills to address this illness The focus became increasingly centred on bodily semantics and endogenous knowledge systems and practices Dr Patrick Iroegbu s work is a very valuable and rare study and has appeared at a desirable time It is for an African society a comprehensive study of the many ways Igbo people in their practical routinelike attitudes and body centred experiences as well as in their more reflective aetiologic knowledge and healing institutions relate to the phenomenon of insanity or ara in the cultural parlance As the first of its kind reminiscent of and assured by the various remarks of Igbo scholars and leaders at various meetings and discourses the task this work has set out to accomplish is a very brave one The author s account of his fieldwork experiences and adopted techniques illustrates his initiation revealing him as a genuine ethnographer who is a friend of people and at ease with his field With both the far seeing and inspiring analysis of Igbo medicine life and culture accounted for in the work the book stands out for ethnographers teachers students

African Cultural Personalities in a World of Change Ikechukwu Anthony Kanu, Ejikemeuwa J. O. Ndubisi, Kanayo Nwadiolor, 2018-08-16 This notwithstanding over the years the African culture in all its manifestations became the bulls eye for attack especially during the Atlantic Slave Trade Colonialism Racism During these periods Europe dealt coup de grace to the African personality to his iness by destroying the African cultural values They disrespected African peculiarities languages enriched with traditions of centuries parables many of them the quintessence of family and national histories modes of thought influenced more or less by local circumstances local poetry which reveals the profundity of African literary wizardry A lot of these were altered against the background that the African in all his susceptibilities is an inferior race and that it is needful to give him a foreign model beacon to emulate and follow In our time of globalization bringing about a new sweep of changes on the African cultural values a more careful historically grounded interpretation of the cultural changes occurring on the continent is therefore needed and for it to be useful it should enable us to transcend the narrow and narrowing parameters that currently dominate the discourse on the processes and structures of change occurring in contemporary Africa This piece is a great accomplishment by African scholars to do a grounded hermeneutics of the structures of changes taking place in Africa The different chapters are the fruits of the 2018 International Conference of the Association for the Promotion of African Studies APAS The authors like artists combine originality with insightful imagination They have carefully treated the historical conceptual basic and substantive issues in cultural change in Africa Their coherent systematic and encyclopedic approaches have the capacity to expand the intellectual and professional horizon of its readers
