Right Way to Lose a War Dominic Tierney, 2025-05-01 Why has America stopped winning wars For nearly a century up until the end of World War II in 1945 America enjoyed a Golden Age of decisive military triumphs And then suddenly we stopped winning wars The decades since have been a Dark Age of failures and stalemates in Korea Vietnam Iraq and Afghanistan exposing our inability to change course after battlefield setbacks In this provocative book award winning scholar Dominic Tierney reveals how the United States has struggled to adapt to the new era of intractable guerrilla conflicts As a result most major American wars have turned into military fiascos And when battlefield disaster strikes Washington is unable to disengage from the quagmire with grave consequences for thousands of U S troops and our allies But there is a better way Drawing on interviews with dozens of top generals and policymakers Tierney shows how we can use three key steps surge talk and leave to stem the tide of losses and withdraw from unsuccessful campaigns without compromising our core values and interests Weaving together compelling stories of military catastrophe and heroism this is an unprecedented timely and essential guidebook for our new era of unwinnable conflicts The Right Way to Lose a War illuminates not only how Washington can handle the toughest crisis of all battlefield failure but also how America can once again return to the path of victory

Collective Consciousness and Gender Alexandra

Walker, 2018-08-22 This book explores collective consciousness and how it is applied to the pursuit of gender justice in international law It discusses how the collective mode of behaviour and identity can lead to unconscious role playing based on the social norms expectations or archetypes of a group Alexandra Walker contends that throughout history men have been constructed as archetypal dominators and women as victims In casting women in this way we have downplayed their pre existing innate capacities for strength leadership and power In casting men as archetypal dominators we have downplayed their capacities for nurturing care and empathy The author investigates the widespread implications of this unconscious role playing arguing that even in countries in which women have many of the same legal rights as men gender justice and equality have been too simplistically framed as feminism and women s rights and that giving women the rights of men has not created gender balance This book highlights the masculine and feminine traits belonging to all individuals and calls on international law to reflect this gender continuum technological change and the associated governing of transport systems particularly the role of public sector institutions Community ownership is explored through the new sharing economy developments car sharing ridesharing and bicycle share schemes and older social innovations in ecovillages and communal living Models and practices of community ownership of transport are provided and this study also discusses how community ownership might contribute to sustainable transport Drawing widely on different disciplines and fields of scholarship this book explores the conceptual and practical aspects of communal ownership of transport It will be a valuable resource for those seeking innovative approaches to addressing the pressing problems of transport including graduate and postgraduate students as well as policymakers practitioners and community groups
