Masri, 2017-09-05 The Arab Spring began and ended with Tunisia In a region beset by brutal repression humanitarian disasters and civil war Tunisia's Jasmine Revolution alone gave way to a peaceful transition to a functioning democracy Within four short years Tunisians passed a progressive constitution held fair parliamentary elections and ushered in the country's first ever democratically elected president But did Tunisia simply avoid the misfortunes that befell its neighbors or were there particular features that set the country apart and made it a special case In Tunisia An Arab Anomaly Safwan M Masri explores the factors that have shaped the country's exceptional experience He traces Tunisia's history of reform in the realms of education religion and women's rights arguing that the seeds for today's relatively liberal and democratic society were planted as far back as the middle of the nineteenth century Masri argues that Tunisia stands out not as a model that can be replicated in other Arab countries but rather as an anomaly as its history of reformism set it on a separate trajectory from the rest of the region The narrative explores notions of identity the relationship between Islam and society and the hegemonic role of religion in shaping educational social and political agendas across the Arab region Based on interviews with dozens of experts leaders activists and ordinary citizens and a synthesis of a rich body of knowledge Masri provides a sensitive often personal account that is critical for understanding not only Tunisia but also the broader Arab world

War, Demobilization and Memory Alan

Forrest, Michael Rowe, 2016-04-08 This volume examines the impact of the wars in the Atlantic world between 1770 and 1830 focusing both on the military economic political social and cultural demobilization that occurred immediately at their end and their long term legacy and memory

Dutch Reformed Orthodoxy and Islam Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva, 2025-03-10 However turbulent and virulent Christian Muslim Relations may have been throughout the centuries it does not mean that each side did not take the time to evaluate and appreciate each other's theological dogmas Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva shows that although Christians were subjected to constant attacks and invasions by the Turks for multiple centuries they eventually Early Modern Period sought to refine their thinking about Islam and evaluate its theological tenets in a semi dispassionate form and to provide a large scale reply In the Medieval period in depth analysis of Islam from a purely theological philosophical point of view were rare Most publications frequently resorted to the use of offensive and inaccurate language which at times fomented a disagreement between the parties based not on real theological differences besides the obvious political differences but on imagined ones This volume shows that Post Reformation Reformed Orthodox theologians especially those from the Dutch Republic after having access to a long legacy of Christian Muslim written publications collected by Dutch Universities were able to build much more refined arguments and indeed present well informed apologetical theological and historical arguments against Islam The author also shows that the intense commerce between Christian and Islamic nations and the contemporary flourishing of orientalist studies in the Dutch Universities contributed to the formation of an intellectual arena that was willing to overlook past animosities and focus on the theological differences addressing them as such Studyguide for Western Civilizations Cram101 Textbook Reviews,2013-05 Never HIGHLIGHT a Book Again Virtually all testable terms concepts persons places and events are included Cram101 Textbook Outlines gives all of the outlines highlights notes for your textbook with optional online practice tests Only Cram101 Outlines are Textbook Specific Cram101 is NOT the Textbook Accompanys 9780521673761
