Transnationalism and Translation in Modern Chinese, English, French and Japanese Literatures Ryan Johnson, 2020-12-15 The theory of literary worlds has become increasingly important in comparative and world literatures But how are the often contradictory elements of Eastern and Western literatures to cohere in the new worlds such contact creates Drawing on the latest work in philosophical logic and analytic Asian philosophy this monograph proposes a new model of literary worlds that is best suited to comparative literature dealing with Western and East Asian traditions Unlike much discussion of world literature anchored in North American traditions featured here is the transnational work of artists philosophers and poets writing in English French Japanese and Mandarin in the twentieth century Rather than imposing sharp borders this book suggests that vague boundaries link Eastern and Western literary works and traditions and that degrees of distance can better help us to see the multiple dimensions that both distinguish and join together literary worlds East and West As such it enables us to grasp not only how East Asian and Western writers translate one another's works into their own languages and traditions but also how modern writers East and West modify their own traditions in order to make them fit in the new constellation of literary worlds brought about by the complex flow of literary information across twentieth century Eurasia Matsuo Bashō's Poetic Spaces E. Kerkham, 2006-12-11 Haikai is an art that parodies and often subverts its linguistic generic and personal predecessors and its intersections include imaginative links to the rest of Japanese literature and culture This collection of essays explores certain neglected aspects of this haikaimaster's literary and philosophical contributions A Generation of Spanish Poets 1920-1936 C. B. Morris, 1969-09 This critical study of the group of remarkably talented poets who flourished in Spain between the First World War and the Spanish Civil War includes copious quotations accompanied by English prose translations Mr Morris treats his poets as a group showing how they shared certain themes and attitudes He begins with a general study of the generation as a whole and then examines the use of tradition the zest and levity of the Jazz Age the exaltation of life as a shared attitude then its converse the escape from life and finally the expression in complex imagery of personal tensions and disturbances These are often difficult poets but become less so when they are sympathetically examined in this way and in relation to earlier literary traditions Mr Morris enables the reader to take bearings and establish relationships which are enhanced by reproductions of photographs of the poets Kāma's Flowers Valerie Ritter, 2011-09-01 Kama's Flowers documents the transformation of Hindi poetry during the crucial period of 1885-1925 As Hindi was becoming a national language and Indian nationalism was emerging Hindi authors articulated a North Indian version of modernity by reenvisioning nature While their writing has previously been seen as an imitation of European Romanticism Valerie Ritter shows its unique and particular function in North India Description of the natural world recalled traditional poetics particularly erotic and devotional poetics but was now used to address sociopolitical concerns as authors created literature to advocate for a national character and to address a growing audience of female readers Examining Hindi classics translations from English poetry literary criticism and little known popular works Ritter combines translations with fresh literary analysis to show the pivotal role of nature in how modernity was understood Bringing a new body of literature to English language readers Kama's Flowers also reveals the origins of an influential visual culture that resonates today in Bollywood cinema How Poets See the World Willard Spiegelman, 2005-06-23 This book looks closely at a handful of contemporary poets John Ashbery Amy Clampitt Jorie Graham Charles Tomlinson and Charles Wright and less extensively at some others with an eye to explaining the art of description in poetry How do poets see the world What are they looking for How do they transcribe their vision and make poems out of their observations THE WORLD'S BEST POETRY Lyman Abbott, 2024-02-24 The World's Best Poetry Volume III by Lyman Abbott is part of a poetry

Rock Poetry in

Post-Dictatorship Argentina Lucas R. Berone, 2024-06-10 This book is a historical and discursive study of rock poetry produced in Argentina during the transition to democracy in the 1980s Lucas R Berone analyzes the lyrics and albums of a heterogeneous group of Argentine rock artists and bands who began their careers at that time to demonstrate the emergence and functioning of a new grammar of discursive production he terms the grammar of the incognitus or hidden subject This grammar is a very specific and distinct way of elaborating the enunciative relationship between the artist and his audience when compared to the traditional countercultural rock discourse The author asserts that the new discursive grammar focused on the singularity of the present and the self will produce the last important revolution in the tradition of the so called rock nacional motivating critical responses in the leaders of the movement
