- Writer debates an issue
- Information is arranged by defining the issue, showing both sides of the argument, and taking a clear stand on the issue
- Written in 3rd person (using "it", "he", "she", "they"), uses formal language to discuss someone or something
- Sample focus of the paper:
 - Discuss the value of being a vegetarian
 - Argue for or against the legalization of abortion

WARNING: If the purpose of your writing is not to persuade the reader or to argue a certain point, but rather to inform or to critique, it is possible you have wandered into the wrong essay. Please check our other handouts on the Narrative/Expository and Critical Essays to see which one is a better match for your writing purpose.

When writing any paper, you should follow these six steps. This handout takes you through all six steps in the process of writing a Persuasive Essay.

- | | |
|---------|--|
| Step 1. | Organizing your Thoughts (Brainstorming) |
| Step 2. | Researching your Topic |
| Step 3. | Developing a Thesis Statement |
| Step 4. | Writing the Introduction |
| Step 5. | Writing the Body of the Essay |
| Step 6. | Writing the Conclusion |

Step 1: Organizing your Thoughts (Brainstorming)

Believe it or not, there is almost no topic on which your mind will draw a complete blank. Even if you know very little about the subject matter, you are likely to respond based on something you have heard or read on the topic/subject, or even your basic values. It is imperative to take an inventory of what you know first. This kind of brainstorming can be done in a number of ways:

- Free writing – writing quickly, without stopping, editing, or self-correcting to become aware of what you already know, think, or feel on a topic
- Subject tree – related ideas, connecting outwards from the main topic, in a tree form (See Illustration 1)
- List – free flow of ideas on a topic (See Illustration 2)
- Clustering – main topic is in the middle circle, all related associations are linked to the main topic (See Illustration 3)
