Getting Skills Right: South Africa OECD,2017-07-10 This report identifies effective strategies to tackle skills imbalances in South Africa Electronic Government and the Information Systems Perspective Andrea Kö,Enrico Francesconi,Adeleh Asemi,Gabriele Kotsis,A Min Tjoa,Ismail Khalil,2023-07-28 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 12th International Conference on Electronic Government and the Information Systems Perspective EGOVIS 2023 which took place in Penang Malaysia during August 28 30 2023 The 8 full papers presented together with 1 short paper were carefully reviewed and selected from a total of 17 submissions They were organized in topical sections as follows e Government strategy artificial intelligence Social Justice and Education in the 21st Century Willie Pearson Jr.,Vijay Reddy,2021-04-10 The world is not an equal place There are high and low income countries and high and low income households For each group there are differential educational opportunities leading to differential educational outcomes and differential labor market opportunities This pattern often reproduces the privileges and inequalities of groups in a society This book explores this differentiation in education from a social justice lens Comparing the United States and South Africa this book analyzes each country s developmental thinking on education from human capital and human rights approaches in both primary and higher education The enclosed contributions draw from different disciplines including legal studies sociology psychology computer science and public policy Accessing Post-School Studies Venicia McGhie & Madge du Preez,2017-12-01 Accessing Post School Studies A student s GPS to successful learning makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and S lj The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment Prof Victor N Teise Sol Plaatje University Kimberley South Africa Student Financing of Higher Education Donald Heller,Claire Callender,2013-06-07 The financing of higher education is undergoing great change in many countries around the world In recent years many countries are moving from a system where the costs of funding higher education are shouldered primarily by taxpayers through government subsidies to one where students pay a larger share of the costs There are a number of factors driving these trends including A push for massification of higher education in the recognition that additional revenue streams are required above and beyond those funds available from governments in order to achieve higher participation rates Macroeconomic factors which lead to constraints on overall government revenues Political factors which manifest in demands for funding of over services thus restricting the funding available for higher tertiary education A concern that the returns to higher education accrue primarily to the individual rather than to society and thus students should bear more of the burden of paying for it This volume will help to contribute to an understanding of how these trends occur in various countries and regions around the world and the impact they have on higher education institutions students and society as a whole With contributions for the UK USA South Africa and China this vital new book gives a truly global picture of the rapidly changing situation Knowledge Beyond Colour Lines Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Salochana Lorraine Hassan, Rajani Naidoo, 2021-05-25 Knowledge remains timely in education The need for academics to contemplate its relevance worth use and everything in between deems a continuous intellectual project rather than a conundrum to be solved This book takes the South African context by the horns as it challenges the often dormant and traditionalist ways in which higher education spaces see knowledge Through original research and the voices of academics and students this book argues for repurposing knowledge generation knowledge sharing and critical pedagogy so that more inclusive teaching and learning environments can be both imagined and sustained The contentious tensionalities that this creates for LoLT and SoTL in particular are unlocked so as to trouble the South African higher education landscape with the intent to proffer alternative pathways for a knowledge beyond colour lines Prof Shan Simmonds PhD NWU This edited volume bristles with fresh scholarly approaches and insights of an emergent generation of engaged scholars grappling with the issues and problems of higher education in South Africa The issues dealt with here are varied and encompassing They are treated with intellectual delicacy and probing sensitivity articulacy informed data and bold conclusions They serve well Prof Kwesi Kwaa Prah Emeritus Professor of Sociology University of the Western Cape Founder of the Centre for Advanced Studies of African Society Contemporary India and South Africa Sujata Patel, Tina Uys, 2013-11-12 This book deals with the legacies of the Indian experiences of migration and diaspora in South Africa It highlights the social imaginaries of the migrants and citizens as they negotiate between a reconstructed notion of India and their real present and future in the country of citizenship Both South Africa and India have had a long history of group based identity movements against exploitation around caste and race intersecting with class gender language religion and region The combined history has allowed them to participate in novel ways in the global arena as regional powers The book suggests that the question of identity concerns itself with exploitation and oppression of excluded groups in both countries The authors are particularly attentive to the manner in which the two democratic states have confronted the challenges of history together with contemporary demands of inclusion and discuss the dilemmas involved in resolving them The volume also raises questions regarding future roles especially in the fields of education and the environment It will be of interest to those in the fields of sociology political science international relations history migration and diaspora studies as well as to the general reader Financing Higher Education Worldwide D. Bruce Johnstone, Pamela N. Marcucci, 2010-06-07 Examines the universal phenomenon of cost sharing in higher education where financial responsibility shifts from governments and taxpayers to students and families Growing costs for education far outpace public revenue streams that once supported it Even with financial aid and scholarships defraying some of these costs students are responsible for a greater share of the cost of higher education Shows how economically diverse countries all face similar cost sharing challenges While cost sharing is both politically and ideologically debated it is imperative to
