Coming of Age in Jewish America Patricia Keer Munro, 2016-05-01 The Jewish practice of bar mitzvah dates back to the twelfth century but this ancient cultural ritual has changed radically since then evolving with the times and adapting to local conditions For many Jewish American families a child's bar mitzvah or bat mitzvah is both a major social event and a symbolic means of asserting the family's ongoing connection to the core values of Judaism Coming of Age in Jewish America takes an inside look at bar and bat mitzvahs in the twenty-first century examining how the practices have continued to morph and exploring how they serve as a sometimes shaky bridge between the values of contemporary American culture and Judaic tradition Interviewing over 200 individuals involved in bar and bat mitzvah ceremonies from family members to religious educators to rabbis Patricia Keer Munro presents a candid portrait of the conflicts that often emerge and the negotiations that ensue In the course of her study she charts how this ritual is rife with contradictions it is a private family event and a public community activity and for the child it is both an educational process and a high stakes performance Through detailed observations of Conservative Orthodox Reform and independent congregations in the San Francisco Bay Area Munro draws intriguing broad reaching conclusions about both the current state and likely future of American Judaism In the process she shows not only how American Jews have forged a unique set of bar and bat mitzvah practices but also how these rituals continue to shape a distinctive Jewish American identity

Kama Muta Alan Page

Fiske,2019-11-26 This book describes a ubiquitous and potent emotion that has only rarely and recently been studied in any systematic manner The words that come closest to denoting it in English are being moved or touched having a heart warming feeling feeling nostalgic feeling patriotic or pride in family or team In religious contexts when the emotion is intense it may be labeled ecstasy mystical rapture burning in the bosom or being touched by the Spirit All of these are instances of what scientists now call kama muta Sanskrit moved by love Alan Page Fiske shows that what evokes this emotion is the sudden creation intensification renewal repair or recall of a communal sharing relationship when love ignites or people feel newly connected He explains the social psychological cultural and likely evolutionary processes involved and how they interlock Kama muta is described as it manifests in diverse settings at many points in history across scores of cultures in everyday experiences as well as the peak moments of life The chapters illuminate the occurrence of kama muta in a range of contexts including religion oratory literature sport social media and nature The book will be of interest to students and scholars from a number of disciplines who are interested in emotion or social relationships Supplementary notes can be found online at www.routledge.com/9780367220945

Religious Intimacies Mary Dunn,Brenna Moore,2020-11-03 Scholars of religion have come a long way since William James famously made of religion a matter between man and his maker For decades now they have been attentive to the ways in which religion takes shape as the product of broad social forces focusing on the dynamics of power and culture as heuristics for understanding religious phenomena and experience What however might they be missing by moving too quickly from one interpretative extreme to the other and what might we learn about religion by staying in the interstitial space between the individual in her solitude and society as a whole Religious Intimacies edited by Mary Dunn and Brenna Moore brings together nine scholars of modern Christianity to probe this in between space In essays that range from treatments of Jesuit indigenous relations in early modern Canada to the erotics of contemporary black theology each contributor makes the case for the study of the presence and power of affective ties and relational dynamics between friends lovers and intimate others even things as vital to the understanding of religion

The Destruction of Medieval Manuscripts in England Krista A. Milne,2025-03-28 The Dissolution of the Monasteries 1536 40 is widely held as the single most significant event in England's history of the destruction and loss of medieval manuscripts Despite this consensus the ultimate impact of the Dissolution and of medieval manuscript destruction during the centuries that followed remains unclear How did Reformation era losses compare to those which preceded the Reformation and to those that followed it How did the losses caused by sectarian conflicts compare to more quotidian kinds of loss such as improper storage or deliberate de acquisition Which manuscripts were targeted when were they targeted and how should one account for the inevitably skewed record In The Destruction of Medieval Manuscripts in England Krista A Milne asks these questions to better understand literary taste behavioural patterns and the circulation of knowledge throughout the medieval period Milne explores methods drawn from quantitative codicology to explore the most significant moments of manuscript loss in the history of England The evidence suggests that this destruction was much more limited in its targets but far more extensive in scope than is usually acknowledged Overwhelmingly throughout the investigation the manuscripts most at risk were those considered too new to qualify as antique but too old to be au courant This pattern of destruction which Milne describes as the principle of age without vintage remains apparent in many different domains today

A Living Sacrifice: Liturgy and Eschatology in Joseph Ratzinger Roland Millare, 2022-06-13 A Living Sacrifice focuses on the inherent relationship between eschatology and the liturgy in light of Ratzinger's insistence upon the primacy of logos over ethos When logos is subordinated to ethos the human person becomes subjected to a materialist ontology that leads to an ethos that is concerned above all by utility and progress which affects one's approach to understanding the liturgy and eschatology How a person celebrates the liturgy becomes subject to the individual whim of one person or a group of people Eschatology is reduced to addressing the temporal needs of a society guided by a narrow conception of hope or political theology If the human person wants to understand his authentic sacramental logos then he must first turn to Christ the incarnate Logos who reveals to him that he is created for a loving relationship with God and others The primacy of logos is the central hermeneutical key to understanding the unique vision of Ratzinger's Christocentric liturgical theology and eschatology This is coupled with a study of Ratzinger's spiritual Christology with a focus on how it influences his theology of liturgy and eschatology through the notions of participation and communion in Christ's sacrificial love Finally A Living Sacrifice examines Ratzinger's theology of hope charity and beauty as well as his understanding of active participation in relationship to the eschatological and cosmic characteristics of the sacred liturgy
