Press Radio and TV Guide Rachel Eddon, 2003 Press, Radio and TV Guide: Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands ,1992 Prostitution, Harm and Gender Inequality Maddy Coy, 2016-04-08 Prostitution Harm and Gender Inequality brings together international research exploring the range of gendered harms to women involved in prostitution and the consequences of growth of the sex industry for global gender relations While there is an increasing amount of research and academic output on prostitution the current focus is often on discussion and critique of policy frameworks and contemporary debates over harm are largely limited to sex trafficking and sexual exploitation of children Less attention is paid to questions of how the sex industry perpetuates notions of objectification and male entitlement with respect to sexual access to women s bodies despite being key feminist concerns for several decades This position has become effectively marginalized but the global growth and industrialization of the sex industry requires a return to these questions Through exploring gendered inequality and re engaging with an understanding of prostitution as harmful with impacts on the self and body that are experienced as abusive but do not always constitute violence this book introduces a range of research and thinking while also drawing on existing literature to explore the consequences of prostitution for women in the sex industry and wider gender relations These issues are discussed with regard to coercion and recruitment including trafficking notions of male entitlement in accounts of men who buy sex critical interrogations of agency and choice legal and policy

frameworks and representations of prostitution in popular culture SRDS International Media Guide ,2002 Queer Bangkok Peter A. Jackson,2011-03-01 The Thai capital Bangkok is the unrivalled centre of the country's gay lesbian and transgender communities. These communities are among the largest in Southeast Asia and indeed in the world and have a diversity, social presence and historical depth that set them apart from the queer cultures of many neighbouring societies. The first years of the 21st Century have marked a significant transition moment for all of Thailand's LGBT cultures with a multidimensional expansion in the geographical extent, media presence, economic importance, political impact, social standing and cultural relevance of Thai queer communities. This book analyzes the roles of the market and media, especially cinema and the Internet, in these transformations and considers the ambiguous consequences that the growing commodification and mediatization of queer lives have had for LGBT rights in Thailand. A key finding is that in the early 21st Century processes of global queering are leading to a growing Asianisation of Bangkok's queer cultures. This book traces Bangkok's emergence as a central focus of an expanding regional network linking gay lesbian and transgender communities in Hong Kong, Singapore, Taiwan, Indonesia, the Philippines and other rapidly developing East and Southeast Asian societies. Peter A. Jackson is an associate professor in the School of Culture, History and Language at Australian National University. The myriad faces of Thai gender sexuality culture have been an attraction for both pleasure seekers and researchers, scholars, activists. Exploring the rapidly changing LGBT cultures and Thai queer identities, the essays collected here provide insightful analyses of historical continuities as well as developing variations within the highly complex, erotic, economic texture of Thai society. A must read for anyone in the booming field of gender sexuality studies. Josephine Ho, Chair Professor, Center for the Study of Sexualities, National Central University, Taiwan Scotland's Islands Richard Clubley,2014-05-12 This is not a guide to the islands of Scotland. This is not a tour to be followed nor is it travel advice. This is a richly anecdotal and personal exploration. Richard Clubley shares the sense of freedom he finds in the Scottish islands as he discovers their individual character, beauty and diversity. He meets locals and learns a few realities of island life. He almost perished on Ailsa Craig before finding fresh water dripping from the roof of a cave but spends two idyllic nights alone on Mingulay with a fabulous coal fire in a bothy. His passion for Scottish islands shines through every chapter. Curl up by the fire, pull the blanket close and sip on your dram. You're about to escape to the islands. Prepare for addiction. A book for islanders to savour in sips. Night caps are suggested that way the addiction can be controlled. MAIRI HEDDERWICK Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand 2 Ben Goldsmith, Mark David Ryan, Geoff Lealand,2015-04-01 Building on and bringing up to date the material presented in the first instalment of Directory of World Cinema: Australia and New Zealand, this volume continues the exploration of the cinema produced in Australia and New Zealand since the beginning of the twentieth century. Among the additions to this volume are in-depth treatments of the locations that feature prominently in the countries' cinema. Essays by leading critics and film scholars consider the significance of the outback and the beach in films which are evoked as a liminal space in Long

Weekend and a symbol of death in Heaven s Burning among other films Other contributions turn the spotlight on previously unexplored genres and key filmmakers including Jane Campion Rolf de Heer Charles Chauvel and Gillian Armstrong Accompanying the critical essays in this volume are more than one hundred and fifty new film reviews complemented by film stills and significantly expanded references for further study From The Piano to Crocodile Dundee Directory of World Cinema Australia and New Zealand 2 completes this comprehensive treatment of a consistently fascinating national cinema
