Styrofoam Wings

by Karma Wilson

Mum got a package, a great big package.
Inside were these Styrofoam things.
And I thought to myself, "I just might fly
if I made some Styrofoam wings."

- 8 So I got myself some wrapping tape
and a ball of old kite string.
And I put these things upon my back,
and I made myself some wings.

- My parents said, "How very cute,
10 But, honey, they won't fly."
I said, "They might, they surely might.
To know I'll have to try."

26 The speaker in this poem is a young girl who —

- F likes spending time exploring the outdoors
- G settles a disagreement with her brother
- H creates something to play with from ordinary things
- J finds a clever solution to a problem
