

Read the quote in the box below.

"In the 21st century, scientific and technological innovations have become increasingly important as we face the benefits and challenges of both globalization and a knowledge-based economy. To succeed in this new information-based and highly technological society, students need to develop their capabilities in STEM to levels much beyond what was considered acceptable in the past."

– National Science Foundation

Are schools doing enough to prepare students for careers in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM)? Think carefully about this question.

Write an essay stating your position on whether schools are sufficiently preparing students for careers that require more STEM-based skills than in previous generations.

Be sure to —

- Clearly state your thesis
