contains the 4 sessions of the competencies module or The Investment is Worth It Competence is the capacity to function in one's profession successfully and efficiently It includes a combination of knowledge basic requirements capabilities skills abilities behavior and attitude The competent leader also understands the responsibility to pass the baton of leadership by authentic and not casual mentoring of others The competent leader is on a never ending quest of proficiency and mastery of his or her profession for the sake of mentoring others It is this drive and motivation that has proven to be the key to personal and organizational legacy Spending Advertising Money in the Digital Age Hamish Pringle, Jim Marshall, 2011-12-03

Seismic changes are occurring in the world of advertising due to the inexorable rise of new technologies and the way consumers are using new media These changes in behaviour are challenging accepted ways of using the media to build brands Based on data from the IPA Effectiveness Awards databank and from IPA TouchPoints the world's first customer centric media habits survey plus research from Nielsen and Millward Brown the authors propose a new model F A I P A for media and communications planning This model describes how to select the right media channel to promote a brand from the many that are now available and if you are employing a range of bought owned and earned media which to concentrate on and how to allocate the budget between them Spending Advertising Money in the Digital Age also has contributions from leading figures in the media industry and contains many examples of top campaigns with demonstrable results in the marketplace The 4 A's of Marketing Jagdish Sheth, Rajendra Sisodia, 2012-04-23 The authors present a powerful and tested approach that helps managers see a business's every action through the eyes of its customers This approach is organized around the values that matter most to customers Acceptability Affordability Accessibility and Awareness Taken together these attributes are called the 4A's The 4A framework derives from a customer value perspective based on the four distinct roles that customers play in the market seekers selectors payers and users For a marketing campaign to succeed it must achieve high marks on all four A's using a blend of marketing and non marketing resources The 4A framework helps companies create value for customers by identifying exactly what they want and need as well as by uncovering new wants and needs For example none of us knew we needed an iPad until Apple created it That means not only ensuring that customers are aware of the product but also ensuring that the product is affordable accessible and acceptable to them Throughout this book the authors demonstrate how looking at the world through the 4A lens helps companies avoid marketing myopia an excessive focus on the product as well as managerial myopia an excessive focus on process In fact it is a powerful way to operationalize the marketing concept it enables managers to look at the world through the customer's eyes This ability has become an absolute necessity for success in today's hyper competitive marketplace Grow by Focusing on What Matters Joel E. Urbany, 2011-01-29 Growth and competitive advantage are about effective positioning Building effective positioning is challenging today for firms facing new and stronger competition volatile and uncertain markets and shifting customer desires and demands The 3 Circle Model facilitates speed of understanding and action by focusing attention on the most critical strategy concepts in this uncertain environment Growth strategy emerges in the model from systematically addressing four key strategy directives in a deep and disciplined way define build and defend the unique value you create for customers correct eliminate or reveal value that is failing customers or of which they are not aware potentially neutralize the unique value created for customers by competitors explore and exploit new growth opportunities through deep understanding of customers unmet needs
