An Annotated Catalogue of the Edward C. Atwater Collection of American Popular Medicine and Health Reform: A-L Christopher Hoolihan, 2001 This is a catalogue of the Edward C. Atwater Collection of rare books dealing with popular medicine in early America which is housed at the University of Rochester Medical School library. The books described in the catalogue were written by physicians and other professionals to provide information for the non medical audience. The books taught human anatomy, hygiene, temperance and diet, how to maintain health and how to cope with illness, especially when no professional help was available. The books promoted a healthy lifestyle for the readers, giving guidance on everything from physical fitness and recreation to the special health needs of women. The collection consists of works dealing with reproduction from birth control to delivering and caring for a baby, venereal disease, home nursing, epidemics and the need for public sex education. These books, covering areas largely ignored by the medical profession, made important contributions to the health of the American public and the collection is a vital piece of medical history. The collector is Edward C. Atwater, Professor Emeritus of Medicine and the History of Medicine at the University of Rochester Medical School. novel he had adapted it from a work of non fiction at the suggestion of his editor Jules Hetzel The novel was published in 1863 before successful balloon air flight was accomplished The story is pure adventure and typically Verne It is not without its drawbacks it is unpolished compared to some of Verne s later works and the racism is difficult for today s readers to accept As a first adventure story it was a testament as to what was to come from Verne proving his publisher Hetzel had backed a winner This annotated edition includes a biography and critical essay The Narratological Analysis of Lyric Poetry Peter Hühn,Jens Kiefer,2005 This study offers a fresh approach to the theory and practice of poetry criticism from a narratological perspective Arguing that lyric poems share basic constituents of narration with prose fiction namely temporal sequentiality of events and verbal mediation the authors propose the transgeneric application of narratology to the poetic genre with the aim of utilizing the sophisticated framework of narratological categories for a more precise and complex modeling of the poetic text On this basis the study provides a new impetus to the neglected field of poetic theory as well as to methodology The practical value of such an approach is then demonstrated by detailed model analyses of canonical English poems from all major periods between the 16th and the 20th centuries The comparative discussion of these analyses draws general conclusions about the specifics of narrative structures in lyric poetry in contrast to prose fiction Laws of Puerto Rico Annotated Puerto Rico,2004 Witchcraft and Sorcery in East Africa John Middleton,E.
