The New Experience of the Supersensible Jesaiah Ben-Aharon,2007 According to Rudolf Steiner s spiritual science the greatest spiritual event of our time is the renewal and reawakening of our human suprasensory relationship to the higher spiritual worlds The force that leads to this development called by various names in different cultural and religious traditions is called the Christ impulse by Anthroposophy in accordance with Christian terminology Because of new naturally endowed suprasensory faculties human beings are increasingly able to experience and perceive through an act of grace the great spiritual force of the Christ impulse This experience is said to be a naturally given initiation and today we increasingly hear of such suprasensory experiences Today however a healthy approach to these natural phenomena requires us to comprehend suprasensory experiences with full awareness and clear thinking This book builds an all important bridge between the naturally given suprasensory experience and its conscious cognition As a result empirical suprasensory research can investigate the different aspects of Christ s etheric becoming and appearance in a way that both methodically and experientially fulfils the justified cognitive and scientific requirements of our age This new paperback edition adds a new introductory chapter

The Post Magazine and Insurance Monitor, 1909 Sexuality and Subordination Susan Mendus, Jane Rendall, 2002-09-11 Sexuality and Subordination uses the insights of a range of disciplines to examine the construction of gender in nineteenth century Britain and France With contributions from history literature sociology and philosophy its interdisciplinary approach demonstrates the extent to which a common focus can illuminate problems inaccessible to any single discipline Victorianism is generally understood to mean sexual double standards hypocrisy and prudery among the middle classes But as this collection shows the representation of sexuality in the nineteenth century was more diverse and complex than is sometimes realized Both art and literature point to the deployment of sexual metaphors and imagery and the language of educated public opinion was shaped by the dichotomy between mind and matter between rationality and sexuality The contributors to this volume explore how women in questioning their subordination had to challenge a construction of femininity which imposed sexual ignorance

The Universal God James E. Will, 1994-01-01 How can Christians bring about peace and justice in the world when Christianity seems either to claim the absolute truth about God or to dissolve into disempowering relativism James Will seeks an answer for this crucial question in the spiritual and intellectual life of the church He challenges the traditional western idea of God as omnipotent and unchanging instead offering the theory of the universal relationality of God Writing from the perspective of process theology Will says that just as God had an impact on the world so the world has an impact on God God is related and responsive to the world In the modern world where many cultures and belief systems are in contact and often conflict with one another Will s broadening of the conception of God offers an integration of many cultures and beliefs recognizing their relatedness without reducing any of them In this way Will believes the universal God may bring love and peace to a pluralistic and often divided world

The Touch of God Charles R. Meyer,2002-05-30 The most important matter of concern for theologians today as always is the existence of God Theologians of the past have relied upon rational proofs for God s existence especially those based on an analysis of contingency and causality These Thomistic proofs served their purpose in a culture that was permeated with philosophical orientations and metaphysical argumentation But such logical arguments seem to have lost their relevance in our technological age Many people today are looking to religion not so much for spiritual guidance counseling or psychotherapy as for some kind of experience of the mystery which is God Individuals seeking meaning and hope in their lives are not comforted by a God described as the Necessary Cause or Unmoved Mover Rather they seek to experience the presence of the personal and loving God of Biblical revelation and the Judeo Christian tradition They search for signs of the divine presence in their daily life experiences This problematic of identifying God's presence in an experience may necessitate the construction of an entirely new theological methodology radically different from the traditional one which proceeded largely by way of rational analysis Realizing this Father Meyer analyzes from the theological point of view the experience of God's presence in daily life and surveys the criteria and norms by which that experience can be identified as being of divine origin He also includes an analysis of the fundamental yet often forgotten role of the Holy Spirit in religious experience thereby exploring the basis of the current Pentecostal movement
