Forgiveness

For you the greatest of the gifts God has given us is forgiveness. Let us ask for it.

When we confess our sins to God and ask for forgiveness, we are forgiven. We are made new again.

(From "Twice Told Tales") Натаниель Готорн, 2021-12-02 The YWCA Magazine, 1911 Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks, Volume 8 Søren Kierkegaard, 2015-08-18 For over a century the Danish thinker Søren Kierkegaard 1813-55 has been at the center of a number of important discussions concerning not only philosophy and theology but also more recently fields such as social thought psychology and contemporary aesthetics especially literary theory Despite his relatively short life Kierkegaard was an extraordinarily prolific writer as attested to by the 26 volume Princeton University Press edition of all of his published writings But Kierkegaard left behind nearly as much unpublished writing most of which consists of what are called his journals and notebooks Kierkegaard has long been recognized as one of history's great journal keepers but only rather small portions of his journals and notebooks are what we usually understand by the term diaries By far the greater part of Kierkegaard's journals and notebooks consists of reflections on a myriad of subjects philosophical religious political personal Studying his journals and notebooks takes us into his workshop where we can see his entire universe of thought We can witness the genesis of his published works to be sure but we can also see whole galaxies of concepts new insights and fragments large and small of partially or almost entirely completed but unpublished works Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks enables us to see the thinker in dialogue with his times and with himself Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the extensive marginal comments that he added later This edition of the journals reproduces this format includes several photographs of original manuscript pages and contains extensive scholarly commentary on the various entries and on the history of the manuscripts being reproduced Volume 8 of this 11 volume series includes five of Kierkegaard's important NB journals Journals NB21 through NB25 which cover the period from September 1850 to June 1852 and which show Kierkegaard alternately in polemical and reflective postures The polemics emerge principally in Kierkegaard's opposition to the increasing infiltration of Christianity by worldly concerns a development that in his view had accelerated significantly in the aftermath of the political and social changes wrought by the Revolution of 1848 Kierkegaard understood the corrupting of Christianity to be in the interest of the powers that be and he directed his criticism at politicians the press and especially the Danish Church itself particularly church officials who claimed to be reformers On the reflective side Kierkegaard delves into a number of authors and religious figures some of them for the first time including Montaigne Pascal Seneca Savonarola Wesley and F W Newman These journals also contain Kierkegaard's thoughts on the decisions surrounding the publication of the Anti Climacus writings The Sickness unto Death and especially Practice in Christianity Kierkegaard's reader gets the sense both of a gathering storm by the close of the last journal in this volume the famous attack on Christendom is less than three years away and a certain hesitancy What needs reforming Kierkegaard insists is not the doctrine or the Church but existences i.e. lives Kierkegaard's Influence on Literature, Criticism and Art Jon Stewart, 2013 Vol 2 is dedicated to the use of Kierkegaard by later Danish writers Almost from the beginning Kierkegaard's works were standard reading for these authors Danish novelists and critics from the Modern Breakthrough movement in the 1870s were among the first to make extensive use of his writings These included the theoretical leader of the movement the critic Georg Brandes who wrote an entire book on Kierkegaard and the novelists Jens Peter Jacobsen and Henrik Pontoppidan

Ethical Silence Sergia Hay, 2020-10-14 Ethical Silence Kierkegaard on Communication Education and Humility examines a new area of Kierkegaard scholarship the ethical value of silence Through exegesis of Kierkegaard's later writings works in what is known as his second authorship Sergia Hay argues that silence is an essential element of his Christian ethics Starting with an overview of Kierkegaard's ideas concerning ethics and communication Hay builds a case for a Kierkegaardian notion of ethical silence by showing how silence contributes to the fulfillment of ethical imperatives by halting chatter setting the fundamental tone for ethical activity curbing excessive self love and providing another mode for educating and expressing love Most importantly silence can be used to humble the self and elevate the neighbor creating conditions of Christian equality Ethical silence is not the silence of the ineffable or what cannot be said this is the silence of what can be said but should not

Hobbes Blaise Pascal Baruch Spinoza Jean Jacques Rousseau Adam Smith Immanuel Kant Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph Schelling Alexis de Tocqueville S ren Kierkegaard and Ren Girard Storycraft Walter Wangerin Jr.,2022-03-08 In Storycraft renowned author Walter Wangerin Jr explores the power of narrative and storytelling to impact message messenger and hearer Through preaching and teaching the gospel comes alive is incarnated in the words actions and stories we tell Well crafted stories shape the relationship between tellers and listeners between preachers and people And in the telling trust is established faith is formed and lives change A well told story gives people eyes that see ears that hear tongues that taste fingers that touch and hearts that can be moved But even before we start to create a story and then to tell it we should trust we have the abilities to craft it well enough to lead our listeners to the truth chapter 3 Wangerin draws on personal experience and a host of voices to make a case for the importance of embracing story as an essential tool for communicating the gospel in preaching and teaching settings He turns to personal anecdotes wisdom from ancient classics and a provocative anthology of narrative types Together Wangerin s reflections create a theology of story that shows how the Word of God takes on flesh in practiced speech The sections of the book focus on the effect of spoken stories and the process of building a story step by step It then provides several examples of stories for telling and expands on the importance of theatrics in preaching and teaching In a very real sense preachers and teachers of the gospel are actors Motion and meaning flow not simply from words but from the embodied presentation of the preacher who approaches the task as script writer director and actor Association Monthly ,1908
