Mirror Mirror Francis Booth, 2019-04-02 We met in the mirror When we walked into our room for the first time we saw ourself in the mirror I mean that s what you see in a mirror isn t it Your self We looked identical Almost identical anyway We both wore a shapeless white dress But our dresses weren t exactly the same We were both carrying the bags that contained everything we had of our old lives Everything we had in the world was in those bags We had the same bags But not quite the same bags We both dropped the bags at the same time Though not at precisely the same time I looked at my reflection It was me But it wasn t completely me

The Short Story Andrew Kahn, 2021-12-09 What defines a modern short story is much more than a question of length Despite the efforts of early pioneers like Edgar Allan Poe the genre was originally synonymous with the anecdote or tale and seen more as entertainment than art However it has become far more than that and this Very Short Introduction considers afresh the form s ongoing innovations in plot construction capacity for psychological insight and ability to offer intensely concentrated perceptions This book charts the rise of the short story from its original appearance in magazines and newspapers largely in the United States and Great Britain For much of the nineteenth century tales were written for the press and the form s history is marked by engagement with popular fiction From the later nineteenth century the short story earned a reputation for its skillful use of plot design and character study distinct from the novel After the First World War it found outlets in high brow publications and single author collections as well as anthologies were regularly published Exploring the form s techniques and themes Andrew Kahn considers the continuity and variation in key structures and techniques such as the beginning the creation of voice the ironic turn or plot twist and how writers manage endings Throughout he draws on examples from an international and flourishing corpus of work with close analysis of classic and lesser known stories by American Canadian Irish Australian Russian and French masters such as James Baldwin Grace Paley Alice Munro Elizabeth Taylor William Trevor Helen Garner Chekhov and Guy de Maupassant Very Short Introductions Brilliant Sharp Inspiring ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

God and the Little Grey Cells Dan W. Clanton, Jr., 2024-05-16 Dan W Clanton Jr examines the presence and use of religion and Bible in Agatha Christie's Hercule Poirot novels and stories and their later interpretations Clanton begins by situating Christie in her literary historical and religious contexts by discussing Golden Age crime fiction and Christianity in England in the late 19th early 20th centuries He then explores the ways in which Bible is used in Christie's Poirot novels as well as how Christie constructs a religious identity for her little Belgian sleuth Clanton concludes by asking how non majority religious cultures are treated in the Poirot canon including a heterodox Christian movement Spiritualism Judaism and Islam Throughout Clanton acknowledges that many people do not encounter Poirot in his original literary contexts That is far more people have been exposed to Poirot via mediated renderings and interpretations of the stories and novels in various other genres including radio films and TV As such the book engages the reception of the stories in these various genres since the process of adapting the original narrative plots involves at times meaningful changes Capitalizing on the immense and enduring popularity of Poirot across multiple genres and the absence of research on the role of religion and Bible in those stories this book is a necessary contribution to the field of Christie studies and will be welcomed by her fans as well as scholars of religion popular culture literature and media

Temporalities of Modernism Carmen Borbély, Erika Mihálycsa, Petronia Petrar, 2023-03-22 Temporalities of Modernism gathers fourteen scholars whose contributions readdress the very tenets of modernism by approaching its multifaceted relationship with time in a series of fresh and original essays The contemporary energies behind the collection are rooted in the turbulence of the modernist age relativity irreversibility duration fragmentation contingency and the looming threat of the apocalyptic future The collection includes geographical areas often neglected by the habitual reduction of modernist studies to English speaking literary high modernism or to the concentration of famous figures in the traditional capital of modernism Paris Thus it offers detailed presentations of Italian pre WWI modernism Czech Dadaism or of Polish Romanian and Hungarian writers and artists The borders also open in terms of genres and mediums as the contributions are not limited to fiction but examine the multi faceted productions of modernist artists poetry theatre painting music cinema photography etc In addition the limits are temporally stretched out as some contributions focus on more recent writers such as Sylvia Plath and their reactivation of modernist discoveries

A Broken Mirror Merc_ Rodoreda,2006-01-01 In its moment of great splendor the novel was held as a mirror of society Merc_ Rodoreda shatters that mirror in this her most ambitious novel which tells its story in brilliant fragments a vision reflected and refracted and finally coming together in a richly articulated mosaic of life Through this Broken Mirror the reader sees events and characters spanning three generations and composing a kaleidoscopic family history ranging over six decades and turning upon events both intimate and historic most notably the Spanish Civil War Opening with Teresa Goday the lovely young fishmonger s daughter married to a wealthy old man the story shifts from one perspective to another reflecting from myriad angles the founding of a matriarchal dynasty and its eventual seemingly inevitable disintegration A family saga extending from the prosperous Barcelona of the 1870s to the advent of the Franco dictatorship A Broken Mirror is finally also a novel about the inexorable passing of time

Heterotopia in Angela Carter's Fiction: Worlds in Collision Eliza Claudia Filimon, 2014 Angela Carter s work is a collage of discourses and genres The challenge of finding a critical framework complex and accurate enough to classify her work has remained The spectacular and the pragmatic threads of her texts framed by extreme seriousness and witty humour are unravelled with the help of a different metaphor denoting enigmatic spaces conterdiscourses borders of otherness heterotopia Five novels out of nine five short stories out of thirty five as well as Carter s two film adaptations are filtered through a term extricated from its medical and geographical roots which emphasizes the ambiguity as well as the dialogic interaction of Angela Carter s often discordant discourses that have kept her at the top of the literary canon Edith Bruck in the Mirror Philip Balma, 2014 Author of more than thirteen books and several volumes of poetry screenwriter and director Edith Bruck is one of the leading literary voices in Italy attracting increasing attention in the English speaking world not least for her powerful Holocaust testimony which is often compared with the work of her contemporaries Primo Levi and Giorgio Bassani Born in Hungary in 1932 she was deported with her family to the concentration camps of Auschwitz Dachau Christianstadt Landsberg and Bergen Belsen where she lost both her parents and a brother After the war she traveled widely until 1954 when she settled in Rome She has lived there ever since This important new study is motivated by a desire to better understand and situate Bruck s art as well as to advance and when necessary to revise the critical discourse on her considerable and eclectic body of work As such it underscores and analyzes the intermedial nature of her contributions to contemporary Italian culture which should no longer be understood merely in terms of her willingness to revisit the subject of the Holocaust on the printed page or the silver screen It also includes previously unpublished interviews with the author The book will be of broad interest to scholars and students of Jewish especially Holocaust studies Italian literature film studies women s studies and postcolonial culture
