New York Legislative Documents New York (State). Legislature, 1919 Case Studies in Canadian Health Policy and Management, Second Edition Raisa Deber, Catherine L. Mah, 2014-04-18 Covering a wide range of issues the 22 cases included in Case Studies in Canadian Health Policy and Management constitute an exceptional resource for bringing real life policy questions into the classroom Based on actual events the cases have been developed with input from mid career professionals with strong field experience and extensively tested in Raisa B Deber's graduate case study seminar at the University of Toronto Each case features both a substantive health policy issue and a selection of key concepts and methods appropriate to examining public policy public health and health care management issues In each case the authors provide a summary of the case and the related policy issues a description of events suggested questions for discussion supporting information and both works cited and further reading Suitable for graduate and undergraduate classrooms in programs in a variety of fields Case Studies in Canadian Health Policy and Management is an exceptional educational resource This second edition features all new cases as well as adding an introductory chapter that provides a framework and tools for health policy analysis in Canada Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents, 1931 Digital State at the Leading Edge Sandford F. Borins, Kenneth Kernaghan, David Brown, 2007-01-01 Digital State at the Leading Edge is the first attempt to take a comprehensive view of the impact of IT upon the whole of government including politics and campaigning public consultation service delivery knowledge management and procurement Just Medicare Colleen M. Flood, 2006-01-01 Just Medicare illustrates that legal scholars can also contribute to the issue of how to allocate scarce health resources by determining what constitutes fair processes for decision making and by challenging unjust processes Race, Racism, and International Law Devon W. Carbado, Kimberlé Williams Crenshaw, Justin Desautels-Stein, Chantal Thomas, 2025-08-19 What would it look like to place race at the center of international legal scholarship From its inception in the 70s and 80s critical race theory's target was the field of law revealing it to be a repository for racial power This particular critique of law was explosive because of law's putatively apolitical status making it a unique site for an intellectual sit in that has forever changed the way that race and racism are understood in American society Several decades later as indicators of populism and white nationalism spread across North America and Europe critical race theory remains markedly absent from discourses in global affairs and international law This volume opens the door for CRT to enter the international sphere Featuring contributions from 30 of today's leading scholars from around the world Race Racism and International Law explains how the concept of racial difference sits at the foundation of the legal political and social structures of hierarchy that shape the contemporary global order Helmed by four pioneering experts two in CRT and two in international law the volume's approach targets regimes of power and violence that implicate racism capitalism and colonialism This volume lays the groundwork for urgent and provocative new modes of critique and analysis Medicare's Histories Esyllt W. Jones, James Hanley, Delia Gavrus, 2022-05-27 Medicare is arguably Canada's most valued social program As federally supported medicare enters its second half century Medicare's Histories brings together leading social and health historians to reflect on the origins and evolution of medicare and the missed opportunities characterizing its past and present Embedding medicare in the diverse constituencies that have given it existence and meaning contributors inquire into the strengths and weaknesses of publicly insured health care and critically examine medicare's unfinished role in achieving greater health equity for all people in Canada regardless of race status gender class age and ability Fundamental to the stories told in Medicare's Histories is the essential role played by communities of activists critics health professionals First Nations patients families and survivors in driving demands for health reform in identifying particular omissions and inequities exacerbated or even created by medicare and in responding to the realities of medicare for those who work in and rely on it Contributors to this volume show how medicare has been shaped by politics in the broadest sense of that word identities professional organizations and social movements in Canada and abroad As COVID lays bare social inequities and the inadequacies of health care delivery and public health this book shows what was excluded and what was and is possible in health care

The Guardian Patrice Dutil, 2011-06-18 Finance departments have often been portrayed as guardians of the public purse In The Guardian a multidisciplinary group of contributors examines the Ministry of Finance of Ontario since the Second World War During the last sixty years the Ministry was transformed from a relatively small Treasury to a sophisticated policy machine What started as a modest bookkeeping operation evolved into a key bureaucratic and policy agency as the government of Ontario assumed a leadership position in developing the province These essays reveal Ontario's finance as a dynamic policy issue shaped by the personalities of premiers and ministers the energies of public servants at all levels and a critical dialogue between political and administrative worlds Drawing on different methodologies this collection profiles a ministry as policy entrepreneur spender revenue generator capacity builder budget director program manager and intergovernmental agent The Guardian fills a significant gap in public administration literature and in so doing describes how Ontario's Ministry of Finance defined its role as guardian
