Readings in Information Retrieval Karen Sparck Jones, Peter Willett, 1997 This compilation of original papers on information retrieval presents an overview covering both general theory and specific methods of the development and current status of information retrieval systems Each chapter contains several papers carefully chosen to represent substantive research work that has been carried out in that area each is preceded by an introductory overview and followed by supported references for further reading

Expressing the Same by the Different Igor Dreer, 2007 This volume offers an alternative sign oriented analysis of the distribution of the French Indicative and Subjunctive It rejects both government and functions attributed to both moods and shows that the distribution of the Indicative and the Subjunctive is motivated by their invariant meanings The volume illustrates the close interaction between the Indicative and the Subjunctive as linguistic signs and signs of other grammatical systems contextually associated with the invariant meanings of both moods Special consideration is given to the use of the Indicative and the Subjunctive in texts of different styles and genres This volume also deals with the diachronic disfavoring of the Subjunctive and especially of the Imperfect Subjunctive that occurred from Old French to Contemporary French It is argued that this disfavoring was motivated by the narrowing of the invariant meaning of the Contemporary French Subjunctive All hypotheses are supported by contextualized examples and frequency counts
