The British Academy/The Pilgrim Edition of the Letters of Charles Dickens: Volume 12: 1868-1870 Charles Dickens, 2002-03-14 This final volume presents 1 151 letters many previously unpublished or published only in part for the years 1868 to Dickens's death from a stroke on 9 June 1870 also included is an Addenda of 235 letters belonging to earlier volumes discovered since the publication of the first such collection in Volume 7 and a Cumulative Index of Correspondents for the entire edition The volume begins with the final four months of Dickens's American tour of 75 readings which had been conspicuously successful throughout despite the appalling weather and his sufferings from American catarrh The tour culminated on 18 April 1868 when the American Press held a dinner in his honour in New York In July he rented Windsor Lodge Peckham for Ellen Ternan where she remained until after his death he was to give two more English reading tours before his collapse at Preston on 22 April 1869 In early January 1869 he was elected President of the Birmingham and Midland Institute and a dinner in his honour was given in St George's Hall Liverpool Between January and March 1870 he gave a series of Farewell readings in London and on 31 March Edwin Drood No 1 was published illustrated by Luke Fildes it continued monthly until 31 August Of the friends who died during this period much the closest were the painter Daniel Maclise to whom Dickens paid especial tribute at the Royal Academy Banquet of 30 April 1870 Mark Lemon who died only 18 days before Dickens himself and with whom he had a brief reconciliation after their bitter quarrel in 1858 and Chauncy Hare Townshend who left him 2 000 to publish as his Literary Executor Religious Opinions of the Late Chauncy Hare Townshend which appeared in November 1870 Wide Awake in Slumberland Katherine Roeder, 2014 The first study to place this genius of modern comics creation in his historical context Men and Women of the Time Victor Plarr, 1895 Men and Women of the Time George Washington Moon, 1891 Music, Myth and Story in Medieval and Early Modern Culture Katherine Butler, Samantha Bassler, 2019 The complex relationship between myths and music is here investigated Myths and stories offer a window onto medieval and early modern musical culture Far from merely offering material for musical settings authoritative tales from classical mythology ancient history and the Bible were treated as foundations for musical knowledge Such myths were cited in support of arguments about the uses effects morality and preferred styles of music in sources as diverse as theoretical treatises defences or critiques of music art sermons educational literature and books of moral conduct Newly written literary stories too were believed capable of moral instruction and influence and were a medium through which ideas about music could be both explored and transmitted How authors interpreted and weaved together these traditional stories or created their own reveals much about changing attitudes across the period Looking beyond the well known figure of Orpheus this collection explores the myriad stories that shaped not only musical thought but also its styles techniques and practices The essays show that music itself performed and created knowledge in ways parallel to myth and worked in tandem with old and new tales to construct social political and philosophical views This relationship was not static however as the Enlightenment dawned the once authoritative gods became comic characters and myth became a medium for ridicule Overall the book provides a foundation for exploring myth and story throughout medieval and early modern culture and facilitating further study into the Enlightenment and beyond KATHERINE BUTLER is a senior lecturer in music at Northumbria University SAMANTHA BASSLER is a musicologist of cultural studies a teaching artist and an adjunct professor in the New York metropolitan area Contributors Jamie Apgar Katie Bank Samantha Bassler Katherine Butler Elina G Hamilton Sigrid Harris Ljubica Ilic Erica Levenson John MacInnis Patrick McMahon Aurora Faye Martinez Jacomien Prins Tim Shephard Jason Stoessel Fredia J Stone Davis Amanda Eubanks Winkler
