Stations of the Cross Meditations for Moms Anne Kennedy, Susan Anthony, Amy Schisler, 2017-03-02 A Lenten devotional of reflections made for moms like you by moms like you Carry A. Nation Fran Grace, 2001-07-20 Carry A Nation Retelling the Life Fran Grace The story of one of America's most notorious and misunderstood women Carry Nation was 54 when she smashed her first saloon but her life before she started her infamous hatchet crusade has been little known until now In this first scholarly biography of Nation Fran Grace unfolds a story that often contrasts with the image of Nation as Crazy Carry a bellicose blue nosed man hating killjoy Using newly available archival materials and placing Nation in her various historical and cultural contexts Grace retells the crusader's tumultuous life Brought up in antebellum Kentucky Nation lived through the devastation of the Civil War and endured a failed marriage to an alcoholic physician In her early 20s a single mother and a destitute widow she experienced a spiritual crisis Her second marriage to a much older David Nation grew strained under the failure of their Texas farm her exploration into Holiness religion and her attempts to work outside the home When the couple moved to Kansas Nation's disappointments translated into an agenda for social reform Frustrated by the rampant violations of the state's prohibition law and empowered by a sense of divine mission Nation responded with rocks crowbars and hatchets Though much of her last two decades was spent on stage or in jail and in battles with other family members over the future of her unstable adult daughter she edited two newspapers and founded several homes for abused and needy women This complexly woven and delightfully written biography adds depth to the popular image of Carry Nation situating her at the center of major cultural currents in her time Fran Grace is Assistant Professor of Religious Studies at the University of Redlands Religion in North America Catherine L Albanese and Stephen J Stein editors May 2001 400 pages 57 b w photos 6 1 8 x 9 1 4 bibl index append cloth 0 253 33846 8 35 00 s 26 50 A Knight of the White Cross G.A. Henty, 2020-07-16 Reproduction of the original A Knight of the White Cross by G A Henty A Student in the School of Christ Wasihun Senbeta Gutema, 2021-11-11 I am extremely happy to see the completion of this book A Student in the School of Christ by Wasihun Senbeta Gutema a former student of mine and a colleague in the harvest field of Christ Wasihun has presented a unique simple understandable piece on being a true student of Christ The book challenges each of us preachers teachers and the followers of Christ in our state of where we are in our studentship discipleship process and if we are of course true students that do not quit The simplicity of the book makes it readable by anyone who aspires to be the true student of Christ It is at most worth reading Bulti Fayissa pastor and professor of New Testament To embark on writing a book is a courageous beginning and to finish it is a great accomplishment especially in a context where writing and reading are rarely part of the culture By publishing this book Wasihun Senbeta Gutema has set a good example for many teachers and preachers as well as other potential writers if we are to effectively share our knowledge with the present generation and preserve a repertoire of lessons for the future generations I applaud Wasihun for providing A Student in the School of Christ

a revised and coherent compilation of his teachings in the form of a book The book is a reflection of an experienced yet aspiring gospel teacher who has not ceased being a disciple A Student in the School of Christ As it describes what it means to be a student of Christ it discerns wrong assumptions about the same The book is written in a simple to follow and understandable style It is worth reading Gutu Olana Wayessa PhD The No-Creed of Infidelity: Contrasted with the Faith and Hope of a Poor, Dying, Negro Woman, 1830 Of Love and Loathing Nicholas A.
