The Husband Project Kathi Lipp,2009-01-01 Keeping a marriage healthy is all about the details the daily actions and interactions in which husbands and wives lift each other up and offer support encouragement and love In The Husband Project women will discover fun and creative ways to bring back that lovin feeling and remind their husbands and themselves why they married in the first place Using the sense of humor that draws thousands of women a year to hear her speak Kathi Lipp shows wives through simple daily action plans how they can bring the fun back into their relationship even amidst their busy schedules The Husband Project is an indispensable resource for the wife who desires to discover the unique plan God has for her marriage and her role as a wife create a plan to love her husband on purpose support and encourage other wives who want to make their marriage a priority experience release from the guilt of not being enough The Husband Project is for every woman who desires to bring more joy into her marriage but just needs a little help setting a plan into action Reality Bites Back Jennifer Pozner, 2010-10-19

Nearly every night on every major network unscripted but carefully crafted reality TV shows routinely glorify retrograde stereotypes that most people would assume got left behind 35 years ago In Reality Bites Back media critic Jennifer L. Pozner aims a critical analytical lens at a trend most people dismiss as harmless fluff She deconstructs reality TV's twisted fairytales to demonstrate that far from being simple guilty pleasures these programs are actually guilty of fomenting gender war ideology and significantly affecting the intellectual and political development of this generation's young viewers She lays out the cultural biases promoted by reality TV about gender race class sexuality and consumerism and explores how those biases shape and reflect our cultural perceptions of who we are what we're valued for and what we should view as our place in society Smart and informative Reality Bites Back arms readers with the tools they need to understand and challenge the stereotypes reality TV reinforces and ultimately to demand accountability from the corporations responsible for this contemporary cultural attack on three decades of feminist progress Makeover TV Brenda R. Weber, 2009-11-20

Examines the phenomenon of makeover television in order to explore how these shows participate in cultural debates about body modification empowerment gender roles and personal responsibility Body Shots Emily Fox-Kales, 2011-04-01 How do movie star bodies and celebrity culture influence the way real girls and women feel about their own size and shape What effect can popular films have on everyday eating behavior and exercise rituals Body Shots shows how Hollywood films movie stars and celebrity media help propagate the values of an eating disordered culture that promotes constant self scrutiny and vigilance denial of appetite and overcontrol of weight in the compulsive pursuit of an eternally elusive body ideal of slenderness and fitness In a unique approach that merges the disciplines of film analysis gender studies and psychology clinical psychologist and cinema studies scholar Emily Fox Kales demonstrates how the body narratives of such Hollywood celebrities as Lindsay Lohan Gwyneth Paltrow and Oprah Winfrey and their battles with bulimia post maternal weight gain and yo yo dieting not only serve as public enactments of the same eating and weight struggles their fans endure but create a new normal which naturalizes and even valorizes the chronic body dissatisfaction and weight obsession that are established risk factors for eating disorders in women and girls Written for students of cultural and gender studies parents media literacy educators as well as film buffs everywhere this book aims to provide the moviegoer with the critical tools necessary to develop a resistant gaze at Hollywood productions and make healthier choices among the many viewing screens of our super mediated world Fashion's Transnational Inequalities Anna-Mari Almila, Serkan Delice, 2023-10-13 This book explores the evolving relationship between fashion and transnational capitalism It examines the inequalities and injustices that this relationship embodies and engenders within the interconnected domains of production consumption labour and environmental ethics It also considers national and transnational ways of evading resisting and dismantling those inequalities and injustices An accessible and compelling read Fashion's Transnational Inequalities will appeal to students and scholars of fashion sociology politics cultural studies and all those interested in deconstructing the inequalities that exist in the fashion industry globally

The Subject of Torture Hilary Neroni, 2015-05-05 Considering representations of torture in such television series as 24 Alias and Homeland the documentaries Taxi to the Dark Side 2007 Ghosts of Abu Ghraib 2007 and Standard Operating Procedure 2008 and torture porn feature films from the Saw and Hostel series Hilary Neroni unites aesthetic and theoretical analysis to provide a unique portal into theorizing biopower and its relation to the desiring subject Her work ultimately showcases film and television studies singular ability to expose and potentially disable the fantasies that sustain torture and the regimes that deploy it

Girlhood and the Plastic Image Heather Warren-Crow, 2014-06-03 You are girlish our images tell us You are plastic Girlhood and the Plastic Image explains how revealing the increasing girlishness of contemporary media The figure of the girl has long been prized for its mutability for the assumed instability and flexibility of the not yet woman The plasticity of girlish identity has met its match in the plastic world of digital art and cinema A richly satisfying interdisciplinary study showing girlish transformation to be a widespread condition of mediation Girlhood and the Plastic Image explores how and why our images promise us the adaptability of youth This original and engaging study will appeal to a broad interdisciplinary audience including scholars of media studies film studies art history and women's studies
