Consuming Environments Mike Budd, Steve Craig, Clayton M. Steinman, 1999 This is an exploration of how much TV people watch why they watch too much and what they see The authors argue that while people may have good reasons for watching television they seem to be unaware that such habits might be harmful to their environmental health The book examines how advertising and media companies have shaped the commercial content of most television tracing industry motives and operations and their increasing concentration in fewer hands Watching TV Harry Castleman, Walter J. Podrazik, 2024-12-16 Castleman and Podrazik present a season by season narrative that encompasses the eras of American television from the beginning in broadcast through cable and now streaming They deftly navigate the dizzying array of contemporary choices so that no matter where you start on the media timeline Watching TV provides the context and background to this multi billion dollar enterprise Drawing on decades of research the authors weave together personalities popular shows corporate strategies historical events and changing technologies enhancing the main commentary with additional elements that include fall prime time schedule grids for every season date box timelines highlighted key text and selected photos Full of facts firsts insights and exploits from now back to the earliest days Watching TV is the standard chronology of American television and reading it is akin to channel surfing through history The fourth edition updates the story into the 2020s and looks ahead to the next waves of change This new edition is the first to also be available in a digital format Cable Vision, 2000 Free Culture Lawrence Lessig, 2004 From the most important thinker on intellectual property in the Internet era The New Yorker a landmark manifesto about the genuine closing of the American mind Lawrence Lessig could be called a cultural environmentalist One of America's most original and influential public intellectuals his focus is the social dimension of creativity how creative work builds on the past and how society encourages or inhibits that building with laws and technologies In his two previous books Code and The Future of Ideas Lessig concentrated on the destruction of much of the original promise of the Internet Now in Free Culture he widens his focus to consider the diminishment of the larger public domain of ideas In this powerful wake up call he shows how short sighted interests blind to the long term damage they're inflicting are poisoning the ecosystem that fosters innovation All creative works books movies records software and so on are a compromise between what can be imagined and what is possible technologically and legally For more than two hundred years laws in America have sought a balance between rewarding creativity and allowing the borrowing from which new creativity springs The original term of copyright set by the Constitution in 1787 was seventeen years Now it is closer to two hundred Thomas Jefferson considered protecting the public against overly long monopolies on creative works an essential government role What did he know that we've forgotten Lawrence Lessig shows us that while new technologies always lead to new laws never before have the big cultural monopolists used the fear created by new technologies specifically the Internet to shrink the public domain of ideas even as the same corporations use the same technologies to control more and more what we can and can't do with culture As more and more culture becomes digitized more and more becomes controllable even as laws are being toughened at the behest of the big media groups What's at stake is our freedom freedom to create freedom to build and ultimately freedom to imagine New York Magazine, 1993-05-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Political Economies of Media Dwayne Winseck, Dal Yong Jin, 2012-05-08 The contributors show that digital media are disrupting entire media industries but without erasing the past and insist that one media sector is not the same as the next As the title signals even in the age of convergence and remix culture different media continue to display their own distinctive political economies Popular Mechanics, 2005-04 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle Television & Cable Factbook, 2007 Annual Report United States. Federal Communications Commission, 1995 Kiplinger's Personal Finance, 2001-10 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics Kiplinger's Personal Finance, 2001-10 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics Popular Mechanics, 2001-01 Popular Mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world Whether it's practical DIY home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science PM is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle Digital TV Over Broadband Joan Van Tassel, 2013-10-08 Digital TV Over Broadband Harvesting Bandwidth offers a clear overview of how technological developments are revolutionizing television It details the recent shift in focus from HDTV to a more broadly defined DTV and to the increasing importance of webcasting for interactive television Digital Television examines the recent industry toward a combination of digital services including the use of the new bandwidth for additional channels of programming as well as some high definition television The book discusses the increasingly rapid convergence of telecommunications television and computers and the important role of the web in the future of interactive programming This new edition not only covers the new technology but also demonstrates practical uses of the technology in business models The Murdoch Mission Wendy Goldman Rohm, 2002-03-12 A dramatic narrative by a top journalist about the transformation of one of the world's greatest media empires. The Murdoch Mission gets inside Rupert Murdoch's News Corp and documents the media mogul's strategic forays in digital media and broadcasting and new Internet-based businesses. Among other giant highlights is the creation of his new 40 billion company, the mammoth Sky Global Networks. Wendy Rohm provides an up-close look at how Murdoch's youngest son, James Murdoch, is changing his father's fortune in the megamarket of China and other world markets. She shows the impact these forays will have on international trade and the media world at large. Based on her personal time with James in Hong Kong and Beijing, interviews with Rupert Murdoch himself as well as Murdoch's corporate officers, senior executives, colleagues, confidants, and competitors, Rohm provides a larger-than-life, colorful account of how one of the most powerful media lords on the planet leads his global corporation into the digital age. The Murdoch Mission delves into Murdoch's successes as well as his disasters while also providing a glimpse into the impact he and his company are having on the cultural and media landscape of the world. Wendy Goldman Rohm, Chicago, IL, is the bestselling author of The Microsoft File, a Business Week, Barnes & Noble, and New York Times bestseller. A prolific writer, she has been a correspondent for many publications, including Wired magazine, Upside, the New York Times Syndicate, International Chicago Tribune, Red Herring, the Los Angeles Times, and others.
