Defending Frenemies Jeffrey W. Taliaferro, 2019-08-16 Defending Frenemies examines the nonproliferation strategies that United States pursued toward vulnerable and often obstreperous allies in three volatile regions of the globe the Middle East South Asia and East Asia from the early 1960s to the early 1990s Jeffrey W Taliaferro shows that superpower competition and regional power dynamics as filtered through US domestic politics shaped the types of strategies US policymakers adopted toward the nuclear proliferation by Israel Pakistan South Korea and Taiwan during the Cold War The overriding goals of successive US administrations were to contain the growth of the Soviet Union's influence in the Middle East and South Asia as well as to enlist China as an ally of convenience against the Soviets in East Asia. Emanuel Celler Wayne Dawkins, 2020-10-16 Congressman Emanuel Celler 1888-1981 was a New York City congressman who served in the United States House of Representatives from 1923 to 1973. Celler's almost fifty-year career was highlighted by his long fight to eliminate national origin quotas as a basis for immigration restrictions and his battles for civil rights legislation. In Emanuel Celler: Immigration and Civil Rights Champion, author Wayne Dawkins introduces new readers to a figure integral to our contemporary political system. Celler's own immigrant background framed his lifelong opposition to immigration restrictions and his corresponding support for reducing barriers for immigrant entry into the United States. After decades of struggle, he proposed and steered through the House the Hart-Celler Act of 1965, which eliminated national origins as a consideration for immigration, profoundly shaping modern America. Celler was also a consistent advocate for civil rights. As chairman of the House Judiciary Committee from 1949 to 1973, except for a break from 1953 to 1955, Celler was involved in drafting and passing the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Voting Rights Act of 1965, and the Civil Rights Act of 1968. During his career, he was also deeply involved in landmark antitrust legislation, the establishment of US ties with the state of Israel, and the Gun Control Act of 1968, and was the author of three constitutional amendments, including the 25th that established presidential succession. Dawkins profiles a complex politician who shaped the central tenets of Democratic Party liberalism for much of the twentieth century and whose work remains central to the nation and our political debates today. From author Wayne Dawkins, Emanuel Celler 1888-1981 could be the most significant US legislator of the twentieth century. He cosponsored three Constitutional amendments: the twenty-third voting rights for District of Columbia residents, the twenty-fourth poll taxes banned, and the twenty-fifth clear succession established if the president is removed from office. And as a longtime chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, he reluctantly cosponsored a fourth, the twenty-sixth amendment, 18-year-old voting rights. He is also linked to three hundred laws, notably the Civil Rights Acts of 1957, 1960, 1964, and 1968, the Voting Rights Act of 1965, and his masterpiece, the Hart-Celler Immigration Reform Act of 1965. Over the past decade, Celler, who served fifty years in Congress, has been a supporting cast member in at least a dozen books about immigration or civil rights. He was frequently cited in One Mighty and Irresistible Tide (2020) and noted in two key moments of The Guarded Gate (2019). And he was cited generously in Goliath (2019), a book about Celler's other passion, antitrust and monopoly busting. But this fall, he will at last be the focus of a full-length biography, Emanuel Celler: Immigration and Civil Rights Champion. And I believe it will become the go-to book for anyone wanting to know more about this history.

making legislator Effervescent Adventures with Britannia Roger Louis, 2017-12-05 Effervescent Adventures with Britannia is the latest addition to Wm Roger Louis's stimulating and acclaimed series Adventures with Britannia. It draws upon a distinguished array of writers and scholars: historians, political scientists, journalists, novelists, biographers, and English literature specialists to guide the reader through a fascinating labyrinth of British culture, history, and politics. Together they provide a unique insight into the pivotal themes: political, literary, and cultural, which have shaped British state and society. The subjects covered include a new analysis of Jack the Ripper by Richard Davenport Hines; a new appraisal of Harold Nicholson and Royal Biography by Jane Ridley; and a new account of Evelyn Waugh in North America by Martin Stannard. In literature, Patrick French writes on V. S. Naipul; in history, Andrew Lownie offers new perspectives on Guy Burgess; and in politics, Kenneth O. Morgan considers what will become of Britain after Brexit. Collectively, the chapters combine a rich mix of original ideas, historical and literary allusion, personality, and anecdote to provide an intellectual adventure into the mainsprings of modern British and international society.

The Privileged Poor Anthony Abraham Jack, 2019-03-01 Getting in is only half the battle. The struggles of less privileged students continue long after they've arrived on campus. Student Speech Policy Readability in Public Schools Erica Salkin, Logan Shenkel, 2016-10-31 This book explores the issue of student speech in public schools from a student usability perspective. Student speech is both a challenge and an opportunity in public schools. When school boards and districts craft policy, they do so with US Supreme Court precedents, state laws, and community expectations in mind. The result is complex ideas presented in complex speech. What do student handbooks say about free speech, if anything at all? How are these rights defined, and how is the language interpreted? Salkin and Shenkel explore these questions by analyzing a sample of public high school student handbooks from across the country. Drawing from the results, the project proposes real-world suggestions for schools seeking to create student expression handbook language that is easily accessible to the audience it seeks to serve.

Digging Up Armageddon Eric H. Cline, 2022-05-17 A vivid portrait of the early years of biblical archaeology from the acclaimed author of 1177 B.C.: The Year Civilization Collapsed. In 1925, famed Egyptologist James Henry Breasted sent a team of archaeologists to the Holy Land to excavate the ancient site of Megiddo, Armageddon in the New Testament, which the Bible says was fortified by King Solomon. Their excavations made headlines around the world and shed light on one of the most legendary cities of biblical times. Yet little has been written about what happened behind the scenes. Digging Up Armageddon brings to life one of the most important archaeological expeditions ever undertaken describing the stunning discoveries that were made there and providing an up close look at the internal workings of a dig in the early years of biblical archaeology

A Dream Defaulted Jason N. Houle, Fenaba R. Addo, 2022-08-16 A Dream Defaulted explores how the student loan crisis disproportionately affects Black borrowers and why rising student debt is both a cause and consequence of social inequality in the United States Jason N Houle and Fenaba R Addo offer a deft analysis of the growing financial crisis in education examining its sources and its impacts Based on more than five years of ongoing qualitative and quantitative research this incisive work illustrates how the student loan system has not benefited all students equally The authors tell the story of how first generation college students low income students and students of color are disadvantaged in two opposing phases of the process debt accumulation and debt repayment They further demonstrate that policies intended to mitigate financial burden and prevent default have failed to assist the people who most need help Houle and Addo present these social and racial disparities within a broader context tracing how centuries of institutionalized racism have contributed to social and economic inequities perpetuating the racial wealth gap and leading to intergenerational inequality Through interviews with borrowers they illuminate the ways in which racial disparities affect who has college access how and why people take on debt and who has the ability to repay student loan debt after leaving college Recognizing that the affordability crisis cannot be solved by higher education reform alone Houle and Addo consider solutions They argue that policy must extend beyond debt reduction and financial aid to address entrenched patterns of racial inequality and racial discrimination both inside and outside institutions of higher education
