The weekly readings for this unit are the chapters of Maze Runner. The reason that the students in this unit are reading this book is to learn about the world of the novel. The students are challenged with reading the novel and then applying what they have learned to the world of the novel. The students are also challenged with reading the novel and then applying what they have learned to the world of the novel. The students are also challenged with reading the novel and then applying what they have learned to the world of the novel.

With the study of James Dashner's novel, MAZE RUNNER, as well as the activities and the curriculum map, you should certainly enjoy it according to your preference to meet the needs of learners, regular, reading, or test.
