Meaning of Adult Education Eduard Christian Lindeman,2013-08-08 The Meaning of Adult Education By Eduard Christian Lindeman Each of us wrote Anatole France must even be allowed to possess two or three philosophies at the same time for the purpose I presume of saving our thought from the deadly formality of consistency No one can write about education particularly adult education without deserting at various points all schools of pedagogy psychology and philosophy In congruities are obvious one cannot for example be a determinist and at the same time advocate education nor can idealism be made to fit the actualities of life without recognition of the material limitations which surround living organisms One cannot that is make use of these opposed points of view if they are conceived to be mutually exclusive But it is precisely because I do not so regard them that all are included in this essay Light comes from learning just as creation comes everywhere through integrations syntheses not through exclusions The essay which follows will be best understood in the light of personal experience My formal education began at the age of twenty one after I had spent twelve years in various occupations and industries I could of course speak the English language at least the Americanized version which workers used but it was not my natural medium of communication My initiation to formal education was next to the unsuccessful attempt to adjust myself to automatic machines the most perplexing and baffling experience of my existence The desire somehow to free education from stifling ritual formalism and institutionalism was probably born in those frantic hours spent over books which mystified and confused my mind I had already earned my way in the world from the age of nine had learned the ship building trade had participated in strikes and somehow none of the learning I was asked to do seemed to bear even the remotest relation to my experience Out of this confusion worse confounded confusion someone has called it grew the hope that someday education might be brought out of college halls and into the lives of the people who do the work of the world Later I came to see that these very people who perform productive tasks were themselves creating the experience out of which education might emerge In 1920 I visited Denmark not primarily to study education but to pick up lost ancestral threads a quest which arose from my dislocated youth Here I came into contact with a civilization which by sheer contrast with hate ridden Europe seemed like a cultural oasis in the desert of nationalism Whereas the victorious nations were grasping for territory Danish statesmen were conducting a scientific study to determine Windham Press is committed to bringing the lost cultural heritage of ages past into the 21st century through high quality reproductions of original classic printed works at affordable prices This book has been carefully crafted to utilize the original images of antique books rather than error prone OCR text This also preserves the work of the original typesetters of these classics unknown craftsmen who laid out the text often by hand of each and every page you will read Their subtle art involving judgment and interaction with the text is in many ways superior and more human than the mechanical methods utilized today and gave each book a unique hand crafted feel in its text that connected the reader organically to the art of bindery and book making We think these benefits are worth the occasional imperfection resulting from the age of these books at the time of scanning and their vintage feel provides a connection to the past that goes beyond the mere words of the text The Meaning of Adult Education. Pref. by J.R. Kidd Eduard Christian Lindeman,1961 The Meaning of Adult Education E. A. Haizel,1975 Foundations of Adult Education in Africa Fredrick Nafukho,Fredrick Muyia Nafukho,Maurice Nyamanga Amutabi,Ruth Nabwala Otunga,2005 This book presents key concepts information and principles that should underlie the practice of adult education in African contexts It assumes that adult educators should have a historical perspective on the current educational context understand how the colonial experience has impacted on indigenous traditions and be aware of the philosophical underpinnings of adult education activities The chapters introduce the foundations and history of adult education in Africa philosophy and adult education socio cultural political and economic environments opportunities and access for adult learners gender and development in adult education adult education as a developing profession information and communication technology globalization and adult education and policies and structures of lifelong learning Towards a History of Adult Education in America Harold W. Stubblefield,2018-12-07 Originally published in 1988 this book examines the work of the first generation adult education theorists and the traditions that their work helped establish They debated the issues aims and content of adult education programmes and began to explore the often difficult relationship between social expectations and the potential of education As well as providing an authoritative history during a period of rapid social change in America the book confirms that many of the preoccupations of the early thinkers have continued relevance today The Social Context of Adult Learning in Africa Sabo Amin Indabawa,Stanley Mpofu,2006 This book examines how adult education is influenced by and has an influence on the society in which it takes place It presents a clear analysis of the development challenges and sociological realities of the adult education context and explores the potential of adult education to help African countries and communities achieve their developmental goals Issues discussed include adult education social change and development community education race ethnicity and religion social class and gender empowerment democracy health and HIV AIDS poverty and debt globalisation and the environment The Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education Tonette S. Rocco,M Cecil Smith,Robert C. Mizzi,Lisa R. Merriweather,Joshua D. Hawley,2023-07-03 Co published with Colleges and universities are increasingly becoming significant sites for adult education scholarship in large part due to demographic shifts With fewer U S high school graduates on the horizon higher education institutions will need to attract non traditional i e older adult learners to remain viable both financially and politically There is a need to develop a better corpus of scholarship on topics as diverse as what learning theories are useful for understanding adult learning How are higher education institutions changing in response to the surge of adult students What academic programs are providing better learning and employment outcomes for adults in college Adult education scholars can offer much to the policy debates taking place in higher education A main premise of this handbook is that adult and continuing education should not simply respond to rapidly changing social economic technological and political environments across the globe but should lead the way in preparing adults to become informed globally connected critical citizens who are knowledgeable skilled and open and adaptive to change and uncertainty The Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education provides rich information on the contemporary issues and trends that are of concern to adult and continuing education of the programs and resources available to adult learners and of opportunities to challenge and critique the structures embedded in the field that perpetuate inequity and social injustice Adult education is a discipline that foresees a better tomorrow and The Handbook is designed to engage and inspire readers to assist the field to seek new paths in uncertain and complex times ask questions and to help the field flourish The Handbook is divided into five sections The first Foundations situates the field by describing the developments core debates perspectives and key principles that form the basis of the field The second Understanding Adult Learning includes chapters on adult learning adult development motivation access participation and support of adult learners and mentoring Teaching Practices and Administrative Leadership the third section offers chapters on organization and administration program planning assessment and evaluation teaching perspectives andragogy and pedagogy public pedagogy and digital technologies for teaching and learning The fourth section is Formal and Informal Learning Contexts Chapters cover adult basic GED and literacy education English as a Second Language Programs family literacy prison education workforce development military education international development education health professions education continuing professional education higher education human resource development and workplace learning union and labor education religious and spiritual education cultural institutions environmental education social and political movements and peace and conflict education The concluding Contemporary Issues section discusses decolonizing adult and continuing education adult education and welfare teaching social activism lesbian gay bisexual trans queer and straight allies gender and its multiple forms disability older adults and intergenerational identities race and ethnicity working class whiteness and privilege and migrants and migrant education The editors culminate with consideration of next steps for adult and continuing education and priorities for the future

represents an initial attempt to connect adult learning and knowledge management in theory and practice. It provides educators, learners, and organizational development professionals with new strategies and resources for developing active and effective pedagogies which in turn prepare learners and practitioners to manage knowledge in organizations and higher education. To do so, it gathers contributions and case studies from a diverse global team of authors and provides a theoretical and practical outline of new strategies and methods for facilitating adult teaching and learning. It also provides a fresh reading of active learning methods by adopting a knowledge management viewpoint that is broadly applicable whether helping students master content in university courses or helping organizations learn and change. The book is divided into three main sections: a) methods and theories for adult teaching and learning; b) knowledge management in education; and c) case studies and best practices that consider classroom learning, higher education change, and organization development.

Outcome-Based Strategies for Adult Learning Jones, Janice E., Baran, Mette L., Cosgrove, Preston B., 2018-08-17. The definition of education and learning has been changing in recent years as the field experienced and is still experiencing many changes. One of those changes is a rise in adult learners in higher education. In order to cope with this particular change and set their classrooms up for success, it is vital for educators to be aware of and fluent in adult instructional strategies. Outcome-Based Strategies for Adult Learning provides emerging research exploring the theoretical and practical aspects of nontraditional education and applications within curriculum development and instructional design. Featuring coverage on a broad range of topics such as experiential learning, instructional design, and formative assessment, this book is ideally designed for educators, academicians, educational professionals, researchers, and upper-level students seeking current research on how instructional strategies can be tied to assessment.

Training Educators of Adults Stephen Brookfield, 2018-12-07. Originally published in 1988, this book provides perspective on conceptualisations of adult education in the late 20th century, the range of providing agencies, and the varying orientations towards defining the role of the adult educator. It draws together and contextualises a selection of the most important readings on adult education theory and practice. The book will help develop critically reflective practitioners on adult education courses, educators aware of the assumptions underlying their practice, and capable of identifying theories and placing both theory and practice within the
