Post-Romantic Aesthetics in Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Stefanie John, 2021-06-23 This book demonstrates the legacies of Romanticism which animate the poetry and poetics of Eavan Boland Gillian Clarke John Burnside and Kathleen Jamie It argues that the English Romantic tradition serves as a source of inspiration and critical contention for these Irish Welsh and Scottish poets and it relates this engagement to wider concerns with gender nation and nature which have shaped contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Covering a substantial number of works from the 1980s to the 2010s the book discusses how Boland and Clarke as women poets from the Republic of Ireland and Wales react to a male dominated and Anglocentric lyric tradition and thus rework notions of the Romantic It examines how Burnside and Jamie challenge adopt and revise Romantic aesthetics of nature and environment The book is the first in depth study to read Boland Clarke Burnside and Jamie as post Romantics By disentangling the aesthetic and critical conceptions of Romanticism which inform their inheritance it develops an innovative approach to the understanding of contemporary poetry and literary influence Contemporary Scottish Poetry and the Natural World Monika Szuba, 2019-06-24 With an exciting and provocative approach to the reading of landscape and the non human world in the work of four major Scottish poets this groundbreaking book merges phenomenology and ecocritical literary criticism New Forms of Environmental Writing Timothy C. Baker, 2022-05-19 Surveying a wide range of contemporary poetry fiction and memoir by women writers this book explores our most pressing environmental concerns and shows how these texts find innovative new ways to respond to our environmental crisis Arguing for the centrality of individual encounter and fragmentary form in 21st century literature as well as themes of attention care and loss Baker highlights the ways that fragmentary texts can be seen as a mode of resistance These texts provide new ways to consider the role of individual agency and enmeshment in a more than human world The author proposes a new model of gleaning to encompass ideas of collection assemblage and relinquishment and draws on theoretical perspectives such as ecofeminism new materialism and posthumanism Examining works by writers including Sara Baume Ali Smith Elizabeth Jane Burnett Bhanu Kapil and Kathleen Jamie Baker provides important new insights into understanding our planetary predicament      The Cambridge Introduction to British Poetry, 1945-2010 Eric Falci,2015-11-12 The Cambridge Introduction to British Poetry 1945 2010 provides a broad overview of an important body of poetry from England Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland from the postwar period through to the twenty first century It offers a comprehensive view of the historical context surrounding the poetry and provides in depth readings of many of the period s central poets British poetry after 1945 has been given much less attention than both earlier British and American poetry as well as postwar American poetry There are very few single author studies that present the entirety of the period s poetry This book is unique for the comprehensive richness with which it presents the historical and literary historical scene as well as for its close up focus on a wide range of major poets and poems      Pocket Maps and Public Poetry in the English Renaissance Katarzyna Lecky,2019-04-17 Katarzyna Lecky explores how early modern British poets paid by the state adapted inclusive modes of nationhood charted by inexpensive small format maps She explores chapbooks cheapbooks by Edmund Spenser Samuel Daniel Ben Jonson William Davenant and John Milton alongside the portable cartography circulating in the same retail print industry Domestic pocket maps were designed for heavy use by a broad readership that included those on the fringes of literacy The era s de facto laureates all banked their success as writers appealing to this burgeoning market share by drawing the nation as the property of the commonwealth rather than the Crown This book investigates the accessible world of small format cartography as it emerges in the texts of the poets raised in the expansive public sphere in which pocket maps flourished It works at the intersections of space place and national identity to reveal the geographical imaginary shaping the flourishing business of cheap print Its placement of poetic economies within mainstream systems of trade also demonstrates how cartography and poetry worked together to mobilize average consumers as political agents This everyday form of geographic poesis was also a strong platform for poets writing for monarchs and magistrates when their visions of the nation ran counter to the interests of the government      John Ashbery and English Poetry Ben Hickman,2012-03-07 A study of how we should read one of America s most important poets Ben Hickman argues that we must attend to Ashbery s radical conception of reading if we are to understand the originality of his writing His study focuses on Ashbery s reading of English poets including Andrew Marvell John Donne William Wordsworth John Clare T S Eliot and W H Auden and examines Ashbery s writing in terms of an aesthetic of inattention Hickman critiques the Americanisation of Ashbery s work as well as common assumptions about his Romanticism his avant garde Modernism and his engagement with the historical present He demonstrates that Ashbery s generosity as a writer is closely tied to his generosity inattention and situatedness as a reader      Dwellings of Enchantment Bénédicte Meillon,2020-10-27 Dwellings of Enchantment Writing and Reenchanting the Earth offers ecocritical and ecopoetic readings that focus on multispecies dwellings of enchantment and reenchant our rapport with the more than human world It sheds light on the marvelous entanglements between humans and
