When Marcy Deveraux's romance series catapults to the top of the New York Times bestseller list, no one is more surprised than Marcy herself. After all, she barely passed high school, flunked the driving test four times, and fell into a pool at her sister's wedding. Marcy is keen to continue her literary success, but she cannot think of a single idea for her next book. Hounded by her agent, family, and friends, she decides to sequester herself in a rustic cabin in the mountains. There, she finds herself face to snout with a surprise visitor: a rascally black dog who must have escaped from his owner at a nearby campground. Enter hunky cowboy Jackson Parker, who runs the stables for the campground and helps Marcy survive the antics of the ill-behaved zany dog. There's something tender and gentle about this man who could easily grace the cover of any romance novel. Soon, Jackson has Marcy rethinking her own beliefs about what heroes are really made of and what God intends for her life. It's cowboys, canines, and capers galore in this charming novella for animal lovers.
