Translated, Annotated Marcus Aurelius, 2016-11-03

Marcus Aurelius Antoninus Augustus 26 April 121 17 March 180 AD was Roman Emperor from 161 to 180 the last of the so called Five Good Emperors He was a practitioner of Stoicism and his untitled writing commonly known as the Meditations is the most significant source of the modern understanding of ancient Stoic philosophy There is no doubt that the Emperor's Reflections or his Meditations as they are generally named are a genuine work In the first book he speaks of himself his family and his teachers and in other books he mentions himself It was the doctrine of Marcus Aurelius that most of the ills of life come to us from our own imagination that it was not in the power of others seriously to interfere with the calm temperate life of an individual and that when a fellow being did anything to us that seemed unjust he was acting in ignorance and that instead of stirring up anger within us it should stir our pity for him Oftentimes by careful self examination we should find that the fault was more our own than that of our fellow and our sufferings were rather from our own opinions than from anything real The circle of man's knowledge is very limited and the largest circles do not wholly include the smallest They are intersecting and the segment common to any two is very small

Whatever lies outside this space does not exist for both Hence arise innumerable contests The man having the largest intelligence ought to be very generous to the other Being thankful that he has been blessed in so many ways he should do all in his power to enlighten his less favored fellow rather than be angry with him on account of his misfortune This edition of The Meditations includes Translation by Jeremy Collier Introduction and Notes by Alice Zimmern The Meditations of the Emperor Marcus Aurelius Antoninus Marcus Aurelius (Emperor of Rome),1749 Meditations by Marcus Aurelius Marcus Aurelius,2020-03-04 Very little is needed to make a happy life it is all within yourself in your way of thinking Marcus Aurelius Meditations Meditations is a series of personal writings by Marcus Aurelius Roman Emperor from 161 to 180 AD recording his private notes to himself and ideas on Stoic philosophy Marcus Aurelius wrote the 12 books of the Meditations as a source for his own guidance and self improvement The style of writing that permeates the text is one that is simplified straightforward and perhaps reflecting Marcus Stoic perspective on the text It is a cornerstone work of the Stoic philosophy that is still read and practiced to this day A True Classic for Lovers of Philosophical Texts and Self Improvement
