

Watchman Nee

(1908-1972) was a noted Chinese Bible teacher and Christian leader. He began his preaching ministry while still a university student. From 1927 to 1950 Nee founded 200 churches. Starting as small groups meeting in rented houses, these self-supporting congregations became strong spiritually and grew rapidly, continuing to develop after China's Cultural Revolution. Nee was arrested in 1952 and found guilty of false charges; he was imprisoned until his death in 1972.

Nee was motivated on deepening spiritual life through intensive training with the Word of God. His rich spoken ministry influenced many lives. His literature ministry has preserved a large number of his sermons, resulting in the publication of over 30 books in English alone, and through these printed pages Nee's impact continues to be felt.

THE NORMAL CHRISTIAN LIFE

is Watchman Nee's great Christian classic unfolding the central theme of "Christ our Life." Nee reveals the secret of spiritual strength and vitality that should be the normal experience of every Christian.

Starting from certain key passages in Romans, he defines clearly and vividly the essential steps in the personal faith and walk of the believer. His emphasis on the cross and resurrection of Jesus Christ contains fresh spiritual insights that have proven a blessing to many.

During his time in Manila he also conducted a study on the book of Galatians and gave messages on various other topics. There is no record of his speaking on these occasions. He departed from Manila on December 14 for the United States. Brother Lee remained in the United States from the middle of December 1961 through the entire year of 1962. He stayed mainly in New York City until March 1962 at which time he moved to Seattle, Washington. While he was in New York City he held a series of special conferences on the weekends. During the same period of time he also visited Washington D C for two days on January 6 and 7 and San Francisco, California for three days beginning on February 16. There is no record of his speaking in Washington D C. After moving to Seattle in March, Brother Lee visited the San Francisco Bay Area and held meetings on two occasions in April and July. On August 31 through September 3 he conducted a conference in Los Angeles. More than thirty brothers and sisters from San Francisco and Sacramento, California joined the conference. The subject of the conference was the experience of Christ for the building up of the church. On the last day of the conference many renewed their consecration to the Lord. During the time when Brother Lee was residing in Seattle he met privately with a few Chinese students from the Far East together with twenty or thirty other Christians. On November 11 the saints in Seattle began to break bread. Although conferences had been planned in which he would speak in Taiwan prior to these conferences, Brother Lee received a clear leading from the Lord to not return to Taiwan but remain in the United States and begin the work of the Lord's recovery there. This was a significant turn in the move of the Lord in His recovery on the whole earth, especially in the spread of the recovery to the Western world. Around the third week in November, Brother Lee traveled from Seattle to San Francisco and Sacramento. After spending three days in Sacramento he traveled to Los Angeles at the end of the month. There is no record of his speaking in Sacramento. Beginning on December 22, Brother Lee conducted a ten-day conference on the all-inclusive Christ. This was the first major conference after the Lord initiated His recovery in the United States. The attendees at this conference included an American brother from New York City, three responsible brothers from Louisville, Kentucky, one sister from near Chicago, Illinois, five or six Caucasian brothers and sisters, and two Chinese saints from Sacramento, more than twenty from San Francisco, plus the local saints and some Caucasian visitors. During this conference, Brother Lee conducted four meetings each day starting at 6:30 A.M. The second morning meetings and the evening meetings were on the subject of the all-inclusive Christ. The first morning meetings and the times of fellowship in the afternoon were on miscellaneous topics. The conference ended on the last day of the year and was followed by fasting and prayer that lasted past 1:30 the next morning. The Collected Works of Witness Lee 1961-1962, volume 1, contains messages given and letters and personal notes written by Brother Witness Lee from November 26, 1960 through September 17, 1961. Historical information concerning Brother Lee's travels and the content of his ministry during this period can be found in the general preface that appears at the beginning of this volume.
