incompleteness unfinishedness are the challenges of the shadowlands Through the prism of this newly conceptualised analytical and epistemological tool the authors intend to grasp a fresh understanding of the processes of being becoming and being becoming in both their singular and multiple manifestations As an epistemological concept the shadowlands imply that anthropologists must not only identify these uncanny spaces of junction in their research but also shadowlands in the ethnographic papers that they produce In addition to a better understanding of the continuous fabrication of temporalities and being becoming the concept puts into perspective the discipline of anthropology itself Throughout the chapters the different authors permit to grasp the various applications of the shadowlands allowing to project the concept in particular contexts and through specific angles of analysis Arrivals and Departures Otto Latva, Heta Lähdesmäki, Kirsi Sonck-Rautio, Harri Uusitalo, 2024-05-13 Is a River Alive? of contemporary eco criticism They make the case for seeing the worldview depicted in Ovid's poem as an exemplar of the premodern ecological mindset that contemporary environmental thought seeks to approximate They also highlight critical moments in the history of the poem's ecological reception including reflections by a contemporary poet as well as studies of Medieval and Renaissance responses to Ovid Towards Critical Environmental Education Aristotelis S. Gkiolmas, Constantine D. Skordoulis, 2020-11-03 This volume discusses theory philosophy praxis and methods in Environmental and Ecological education and considers the junction with the main visions and issues of Critical Pedagogy The volume and its separate chapters address four axes which can also be seen as the guidelines of the content as well as the central objectives of the book The first axis concerns the missing theoretical and practical pieces at this point in time The volume considers the issues that are not included in contemporary Environmental Education and thus deprive it from critical orientations This implies that in Environmental Education very little discussion exists about the political economic racial gender and class issues that in most cases govern the actions of leaders and stake holders. The second axis concerns what has been done so far and in what directions This involves descriptions of theoretical approaches or actual applied methodologies in the classroom such as curricula or syllabus used or the kind of actions certain educators have taken to infuse the issues of justice and critical reflection within the Environmental Education teaching agenda The third axis examines proposals It looks at ways to enrich domains of Environmental Education with the argumentations of Critical Pedagogy The fourth axis concerns the way in which proposals can be effectuated This part contains specific methodologies and teaching sequences depicting ways of including major aspects of Critical Pedagogy and Critical Education in Environmental Education Examples are Non anthropocentric ecological approaches in the classroom political activism in the Curricula mixture of field activities and political activities Kierkegaardian Essays Clare Carlisle, Steven Shakespeare, 2022-04-19 S ren Kierkegaard argued that the most essential truths come to light by asking How This innovative collection of essays by leading scholars focuses on this questioning How asking how we should relate to ourselves to others and to God how we should be in the world how we can become human The result is a searching original colloquium on what it means to be Kierkegaardian in the 21st century The adjective Kierkegaardian names many possibilities ways of philosophizing choosing loving looking listening reading writing teaching making art praying going to church or not going to church How gestures to subjectivity one of Kierkegaard s most fundamental philosophical categories while What signals an objectifying line of thought The authors of these essays suggest that the crucial Kierkegaardian question is not what we are and ought to do but how we can remain true to the finitude passivity and ambiguity of human existence While this Kierkegaardian how is often acknowledged by scholars it is rarely thematized directly Attending to it elicits new kinds of argument and reflection Kierkegaardian Essays proposes a fresh approach to Kierkegaard and is essential reading for experts and students alike The Virus Touch Bishnupriva Ghosh, 2023-03-06 In The Virus Touch Bishnupriya Ghosh argues that media are central to understanding emergent relations
