The Merry Devil:

The Merry Devil William Shakespeare, 2020-09-28 Your silence and attention worthy friends That your free spirits may with more pleasing sense Relish the life of this our active scene To which intent to calm this murmuring breath We ring this round with our invoking spells If that your listning ears be yet prepar'd To entertain the subject of our play Lend us your patience Tis Peter Fabell a renowned Scholler Whose fame hath still been hitherto forgot By all the writers of this latter age In Middle sex his birth and his abode Not full seven mile from this great famous City That for his fame in sleights and magicke won Was calde the merry Friend of Emonton If any here make doubt of such a name In Edmonton yet fresh unto this day Fixt in the wall of that old antient Church His monument remayneth to be seen His memory yet in the mouths of men That whilst he lived he could deceive the Devill Imagine now that whilst he is retirde From Cambridge back unto his native home Suppose the silent sable visagde night Casts her black curtain over all the World And whilst he sleeps within his silent bed Toiled with the studies of the passed day The very time and hour wherein that spirit That many years attended his command And often times twixt Cambridge and that town Had in a minute borne him through the air By composition twixt the fiend and him Comes now to claim the Scholler for his due The Merry Devil of Edmonton William Shakespeare, 1911
