bloodthirsty hobgoblin and to thwart the Helm's scheme to have him killed. Now the hero's training begins in earnest: workouts, retrieval of a magic flaming sword, battles with wraiths and a showdown with a sorcerer in mortal combat. But now the media starts reporting Matt's victories as murders; an old flame reenters the picture and true darkness looms on the horizon; and even a replica Highlander trench coat might not be enough to save Matt's hide.

Bodies and Boundaries in Graphic Fiction Jessica Baldanzi, 2022-07-29 This book examines the fictional female bodies of four stylistically distinct comics artists in the United States: Chris Ware, Emil Ferris, Ebony Flowers, and Tillie Walden, whose work has attracted significant attention. These bodies showcase how comics and its unique visual language can both critique and re-envision some of the most challenging social issues of our time. The characters analyzed in this book illustrate diverse techniques for projecting the complex humanity and truth of U.S. women's unruly bodies onto a two-dimensional page. All of the protagonists qualify as outsiders in some way, whether by gender identity, sexuality, ability, religion, race, class, ethnicity, age, or a combination of these and other categories. These bodily expressions of outsider identity both resist traditional categorization and stereotypes and sometimes harness and employ those stereotypes for the purposes of parody or social critique. The language of comics affords a unique opportunity for complex representation of these disparate women's bodies, especially when comics artists use the full range of tools at their disposal, such as style, materials, narrative, direction, the space of the gutter, and the friction between word and image. This is a timely and important intervention suitable for researchers and students in comics studies, gender studies, literature, and queer studies.

Integrating Literature in the Disciplines Sharon Kane, 2020-04-22 The Second Edition of this practical and comprehensive resource offers a multitude of ways to incorporate literature into teaching and learning across a range of disciplines. Future and practicing teachers, librarians, instructional coaches, and school leaders can implement the ideas within this text to improve the literacy skills and knowledge of students while also addressing standards and curricular goals of various content areas. The new edition recognizes a paradigm shift from content areas to disciplines, reflecting the specific ways reading and writing are used in different fields of study. Updated with current research and practices, the volume recommends and evaluates books in different genres and categories, with chapters on informational books, fiction, biography, and memoir, poetry, and hands-on and how-to books. For every category, Kane provides a rationale, instructional strategies, and author studies, as well as lists and descriptions of books related to curricular areas. With a wealth of activities and new BookTalks, this Second Edition is greatly revised and features expanded attention to technology, digital learning, diversity, and culture. Using this text will create opportunities for deep discussions and will stimulate students' interest and motivation to read and learn. Integrating Literature in the Disciplines helps educators identify books that fit with any subject to enhance the creative and affective dimensions of school life, encourages interdisciplinary connections, and increases the depth and relevance of lessons. It is ideal for professional development and serves as a tool for Readers Advisory to match books with readers throughout the school day and beyond.
