in 110 figures The objects divided by category and by site range from ceramics which were the most readily and reliably datable to glass of which there was little to metalwork in all its varied aspects from arms and armor to nail splitters wedges and finally to tobacco pipes The Archaeology of Martin s Hundred is a fascinating account of the ways archaeological fieldwork laboratory examination and analysis based on lifelong study of documentary and artifact research came together to increase our knowledge of early colonial history Copublished with the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation
