The Parable Of The Sheep And The Goats Matthew 2540:

Religious and Theological Abstracts ,1986      The Parables of Jesus Christ John Thomas,2017-04-05 A complete illustrated story of the The Parable of Sheep and the Goats taken from the book of Matthew chapter 25      The Sheep, the Goats, and the Brethren of Christ Julian Denker,2021-09-10 The prophecy of the judgment of the sheep and the goats spoken by Jesus in Matthew 25 31 46 is perhaps the most misapplied passage of all Scripture But it should be one of the most powerful for revealing some of the key aspects of the evangelical model of God for His people with regards to the Great Commission The topic of the prophetic parable is concerned with the judgments of the Son of Man towards people of all nations when He comes in His glory based on whether or not acts of assistance and support were provided to those He calls His brethren These acts include provisions of food drink clothes and shelter and the support involves care for the sick and visitation of those in prison The Son of Man is the King of heaven and earth who sits at the right hand of the Throne of God with all power and authority The eternal judgments of God for the righteous sheep or the cursed goats on either hand are the inheritance of His Kingdom or everlasting fire The Son of Man is Jesus Christ who is the King of the parable and the irony is that neither party were aware of the decisive times in their lives when they ministered to him figuratively in the place of His brethren The theme of the parable makes a figurative correlation between the brethren of Christ and Christ himself in that He counts the treatment of His brethren as treatment towards Himself To put this theme into context as the Christian faith was first spread across the nations of the world the brethren of Christ were those doing the will of God His disciples sent forth out from Jerusalem on the Great Commission bringing nothing with them to offer the world but the witness of the truth of God and His Kingdom under the miraculous power of the Holy Spirit In some sense Christ from heaven regards His brethren on earth doing His will as physical representatives of Himself in the world This principle can be seen in such passages as John 13 20 where Jesus says to his disciples He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me Ministry towards an unseen God as expressed in the form of provision and care towards His people is part of the broader biblical principle that love for God is seen in the love his people show for one another as taught all throughout the New Testament scriptures Yet while it s true that those who are genuine in the faith will show such evidence it s also important to remember that works themselves can never earn salvation Scriptures such as Titus 3 5 could not be more clear Not by works of righteousness which we have done but according to his mercy he saved us by the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Ghost Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour That being justified by his grace we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life Thus knowing the real nature and significance behind the visible works of righteousness that seem to be the basis of the judgment in the parable is crucial with respect to reconciling all Scripture and understanding what is truly required for a Christian to be saved under the only rightful condition of obedience to the Gospel that is by grace through faith in Christ A correct interpretation and application of this parable can bring about blessing and growth towards God's Kingdom whereas a false and misplaced handling of this passage can hinder and misdirect God's people into unprofitable religious dissonance undue bondage and into serving other gods of this world How is this passage suppose to be understood and applied without descending into a works based salvation heresy This study book will search the scriptures to foster a clear understanding and rightful application of this elusive and fearful prophetic illustration that does not diminish the Gospel but rather highlights and harmonizes it in line with the most consistent of biblical truths

A Theological Interpretation of the Parable of the Sheep and Goats Found in Matthew 25: 31-46 David Heinz Fischer,1998 Parable of the sheep and the goats , The Sheep and the Goats Chad Venters,2022-08-09 Chad Venters argues that Psalm 80 Psalm 79 LXX is an important source for the composition of Matthew 25 31 46 Psalm 80 provides a religio political background for understanding the devastation facing Israel at the hands of the Romans Viewing Psalm 80 as a source for Matthew 25 31 46 accounts for the diversity of images found in the Sheep and the Goats and provides further insight into the meaning of the passage Venters's reading of the Sheep and the Goats contends that the story is not focused on world ending judgment but a cataclysmic shift in which Yahweh's vineyard has been taken from Israel and given to the church and the nations This book augments the larger corpus of Matthean studies contributing to the less prominent research of Psalm 80 as an influential text for multiple passages in the New Testament and other first century literature Various studies have proposed the prevalence of Psalm 80 through scriptural echoes and allusions in the New Testament Venters seeks to solidify these hypotheses in favor of Psalm 80 as an important background text for the New Testament Gospels
