Developing a Transformation Agenda for Zimbabwe Shari Eppel, 2009 Sets out the political and economic constraints followed by a discussion of the prospects of transitional justice processes Puts forth suggestions for a successful economic stabilization and key issues for security sector reform notable how to limit the strong military involvement in politics Resources in Education, 2001 Papers Presented to the Conference on Zimbabwe, Held 21-22 June, 1980 at the University of Leeds, 1980 Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Christine Peta, 2017-10-25 Disabled women represent one of the most marginalised minority groups in the world hence they are largely silent while their sexuality is ignored suppressed forbidden and buried underneath the carpet Until recently most of the Global Northern published literature on the subject of the sexuality of disabled women has predominantly been constructed from hearsay and second hand narratives in studies which draw from the perspectives of parents service providers and advocates without much consultation of the relevant women By facilitating the voice of disabled women in Zimbabwe and illuminating their experiences of sexuality this book hopes to shift the experiences of sexuality of disabled women from the periphery of society to the fore Disability and Sexuality in Zimbabwe presents original research on an issue that is thus far not found in local research data Whilst addressing the paucity of literature on the subject the book informs policy and practice and enhances the existing body of knowledge by making recommendations towards the development of a disability and sexuality framework that is rooted in the African context This book is of interest to students and scholars of African studies disability studies sociology psychology social work nursing education studies geography women s and gender studies and interdisciplinary studies Additional audiences include a wide range of health social care and educational professionals and practitioners as well donors disabled people s organisations charities government departments NGOs supranational organisations and policy makers The Oxfam Poverty Report Kevin Watkins, 1995 Fifty years ago the United Nations Charter proclaimed universal rights to shared prosperity peace and security How far has that vision of world citizenship been realised Despite advances in human welfare and technology there is today a growing polarisation between rich and poor One in four of the world s people live in absolute poverty unable to meet their basic needs armed conflict is affecting millions of people and the global environment is under threat Yet there is a failure of political will to address the silent emergency of poverty The Oxfam Poverty Report draws on Oxfam s experience of working in over 70 countries to examine the causes of poverty and conflict It identifies the structural forces which deny people their basic rights and gives a wide range of examples of the ways in which men and women are bringing about positive change at every level from the household to the international arena Oxfam believes that it is time to renew the UN vision of universal basic rights The Report concludes by proposing policy and institutional reforms which would transform international institutions and trading relations and calls for a new commitment to work together to eradicate poverty and bring sustainable peace and security for all the world s people Polarization and Transformation in Zimbabwe Erin McCandless, 2011-08-16 Social movements and civic organizations often face profound strategy dilemmas that can hamper their effectiveness and prevent them from contributing to transformative change and peace In Zimbabwe two particular dilemmas have fed into and fueled destructive processes of political polarization dividing society leadership and decision makers well beyond its borders As conceptualized in this study the first is whether to prioritize political or economic rights in efforts to bring about nation wide transformative change rights or redistribution The second is whether and how to work with government and or donors given their political economic and social agendas participation or resistance This book investigates these issues through two social movement organizations the National Constitutional Assembly and the Zimbabwe National War Veterans Association and the movements they led to achieve constitutional change and radical land redistribution Through in depth case study analysis and peace and conflict impact assessment spanning the years 1997 2010 lessons are drawn for activists practitioners policy makers and scholars interested in depolarizing concepts underpinning polarizing discourses transcending strategy dilemmas and understanding how social action can better contribute to transformative change and peace

Zimbabwe in transition Gary Bland, 2010-09-28 The world s attention has remained focused on critical national events in Zimbabwe as the country has moved from the turmoil of 2008 to the establishment of the current Inclusive Government In the process the country s 90 newly elected local governments have been largely ignored This brief summarizes our effort to close that informational gap It provides the results of our extensive research on local governance in Zimbabwe from May to June 2009 Through survey interviews with more than 250 local officials in 15 local authorities we examined four areas First we found that local administration officials are much better educated and more experienced than local elected officials which has significant ramifications for local governance Second we discovered that local officials believe that public participation in local government is strong However we found that citizen involvement is actually quite weak Third local authorities are doing their best to operate with minimal resources Financial transfers from the central government dried up long ago and because of the economic situation revenue generation is poor Finally our research captures the poor state of public services especially health care and basic infrastructure We include some ideas for reform and recovery in the conclusion

Manufacturing in Colonial Zimbabwe, 1890-1979 Victor Muchineripi Gwande, 2022 A key book on Zimbabwe s industrial policy and the relationship between manufacturing the state and economic interest groups Under pressure from local manufacturers and recognising that industrial policy was a legitimate instrument for development on 1 July 2016 to boost domestic production the Government of Zimbabwe passed Statutory Instrument 64 which limited imports and foreign manufactures allowing local producers satisfy demand Zimbabwe s neighbours immediately protested that this flouted the Southern Africa Development Community SADC s Protocol on Trade which aimed to increase trade across borders at regional and national levels This matter revived the conversation about protectionism as an instrument of industrial policy Protectionism in Africa is neither limited to Zimbabwe nor is it a new phenomenon This book brings a historical perspective to the conversation by exploring the policy proposals and political pressure exerted by manufacturing businesses on the trajectory of industrialisation in colonial Zimbabwe and reveals that the major point of contention between the state industry and other economic interest groups in this period was protection Tracing changing attitudes to the country s political economy the author examines the way in which industrialists advanced their interests through the Association of Rhodesian Industries ARnI and other trade bodies and shows how this pitted them not only against the state but other blocs of capital farmers miners and commerce He examines the impact of the post war Customs Union Agreement with South Africa manufacturing strategy under UDI and examines the impact of Southern Rhodesia s development on its trading partners in South Africa Zambia and Malawi Casting new light on the continuing debate on regional trade this important book adds to our understanding of the settler colony s economic business and political history ion in colonial Zimbabwe and reveals that the major point of contention between the state industry and other economic interest groups in this period was protection Tracing changing attitudes to the country s political economy the author examines the way in which industrialists advanced their interests through the Association of Rhodesian Industries ARnI and other trade bodies and shows how this pitted them not only against the state but other blocs of capital farmers miners and commerce He examines the impact of the post war Customs Union Agreement with South Africa manufacturing strategy under UDI and examines the impact of Southern Rhodesia s development on its trading partners in South Africa Zambia and Malawi Casting new light on the continuing debate on regional trade this important book adds to our understanding of the settler colony s economic business and political history ion in colonial Zimbabwe and reveals that the major point of contention between the state industry and other economic interest groups in this period was protection Tracing changing attitudes to the country s political economy the author examines the way in which industrialists advanced their interests through the Association of Rhodesian Industries ARnI and other trade bodies and shows how this pitted them not only against the state but other blocs of capital farmers miners and commerce He examines the impact of the post war Customs Union Agreement with South Africa manufacturing strategy under UDI and examines the impact of Southern Rhodesia s development on its trading partners in South Africa

Marongwe,2021-05-19 One of the oldest survival pursuits undertaken by the weak and the downtrodden people across the world has been begging Going back to the ancient Christian biblical times up to the present epoch as well as across varying spatial settings in situations of trouble and tribulations parts of various communities have resorted to beggary to either overcome immediate adversities or longer term calamities Drawing on insights from two polar theoretical lenses of Social Constructionism and Social Deconstructionism and guided by a pithy study of the begging across the African continent especially by Zimbabweans this book troubles the various contours related to the subject of begging Inter alia the book considers the concept of begging the causes of the prevalence of begging across the world and particularly among Zimbabweans the challenges and benefits associated with the pursuit of alms the impact of begging in foreign lands as well as some of the strategies that beggars employ to maximize their collections and or profits What can be discerned from the book is that for many begging is one of the last resort undertakings with low pickings However from a utilitarian perspective begging has helped to sustain the impoverished livelihoods of Zimbabweans both inside and outside the borders of the country since the advent of a debilitating crisis experienced from the turn of the new millennium On the whole this book seeks to provoke further researches on an important socio economic area that affects many African communities but has so far been scantily researched The book is handy for students and practitioners in economic history African studies economics risk and disaster management social anthropology political science and development studies Go Back to Where You

Came From Sasha Polakow-Suransky,2017-10-16 From Europe to the United States and beyond opportunistic politicians have exploited economic crisis terrorist attacks and an influx of refugees to bring hateful and reactionary views from the margins of political discourse into the corridors of power This climate has already helped propel Donald Trump to the White House pushed Britain out of the European Union and put Marine Le Pen within striking distance of the French presidency Sasha Polakow Suransky's on the ground reportage and interviews with the rising stars of the new right tell the story of how we got here tracing the global rise of anti immigration politics and the ruthlessly effective rebranding of Europe s new far right as defenders of Western liberal values Go Back to Where You Came From is an indispensable account of why xenophobia went mainstream in countries known historically as defenders of human rights and models of tolerance
