Zimsec November 2015 Shona Novels

Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere

Zimsec November 2015 Shona Novels:

Africa at the Crossroads Nhemachena, Artwell, Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2017-04-11 This volume interrogates and theorises various forms of fundamentalism and fetishism that impinge on Africa and the African people. The book valiantly rethinks and unpacks these forms of fundamentalisms and fetishisms offering in the process critical vistas for students, scholars and activists on matters of decoloniality and transformation. By meticulously and painstakingly unpacking pertinent issues, the book provides unparalleled intellectual milestones and platforms for the oncoming revolution and quest for justice in the form of decoloniality and transformation. Drawing from several disciplinary domains such as Development Studies, Security Studies, Political Anthropology and Sociology, Economic Anthropology and Social studies, English Studies, History, Philosophy and Religious Studies, and drawing from scholars from across different universities in the Southern African region, the book provides multiple lenses from which to understand the complex goings on in a continent that can no longer afford to simply fold hands and watch while its citizens suffer multiple forms of coloniality, fetishisms and fundamentalisms. Neo-Liberal

Urban Development in Post-Colonial Zimbabwe Terence Tapiwa Muzorewa, 2025-07-14 This book investigates the role of private land developers in the development of Ruwa Town in post colonial Zimbabwe. Whereas other post colonial established towns in the country emerged from direct public investment through the Growth Point policy, Ruwa emerged from a public private partnership approach. The development of Ruwa Town is therefore a valuable example of a new post colonial experience in urban planning and development which is a clear departure from the colonial town planning which was premised on racial segregation. This book offers unique insights into the historical context, the role of private developers in the growth of the city, the impact of their involvement, bringing a comparative analysis with state led development. It offers a valuable contribution to the field of urban studies, particularly within the context of urban development in post colonial Zimbabwe and in Africa. The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington

Mutanda, 2016-11-22 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966-1980. Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict. The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness. Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower. Africanfuturism

Kimberly Cleveland, 2024-02-27 In the past few decades, Western studies of Afrofuturism have grown to encompass examples deriving from multiple sites across the diaspora as well as from the African continent. However, an increasing number of Africans and Africanists have voiced their concerns about grouping African work under the larger umbrella of Afrofuturism without distinction and have emphasized the need to investigate the differences between African American and African production This book offers an introduction to Africanfuturism a body of African speculative works that is distinguishable from albeit related to US based Afrofuturism Kimberly Cleveland uses Africanfuturism as an intellectual lens to explore works that embody combinations of possibilities challenges and concerns related to what lies ahead for the continent and its peoples This book highlights twenty first century film video painting sculpture photography tapestry novels short stories comic books song lyrics and architecture by African creatives of different nationalities races ethnicities genders and generations Cleveland analyzes the ideas and opinions of African intellectuals and cultural producers combining interviews with historical research Each chapter features one of Africanfuturism s most common themes space and time exploration creation of worlds technology and the digital divide Sankofa and remix and mythmaking This investigation of Africanfuturism is geared toward students academics and Afrofuturism enthusiasts and its included discussion questions facilitate classroom use The book illuminates Africa s place in the worlds of science fiction and fantasy and how Africanfuturist work builds on the continent s own traditions of speculative expression Because these creative works disrupt the history of Western domination in Africa Cleveland also connects Africanfuturism with the process of decolonization and addresses specific ways in which African creatives re center indigenous beliefs strategies and approaches in their production Africanfuturism encourages both imaginative possibilities and potential real world outcomes highlighting the rich contributions of Africans to the vision of future worlds

Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Zimbabwe's Liberation Struggle Munyaradzi

Nyakudya, Wesley Mwatwara, Joseph Mujere, 2022-11-15 This book provides a timely reconceptualization of Zimbabwe s anti colonial liberation struggle resisting simple binaries in favour of more nuanced critical analysis Most historiographies characterize Zimbabwe s liberation struggle as being defined by simple bifurcations along racial ethnic class and ideological perspectives This book argues that the nationalist struggle is far more complex than such simple configurations would suggest and that many actors have been overlooked in the analysis The book broadens our understanding by analysing the roles of a wide range of political figures organizations and members of the military as well as the media and the often overlooked part that women played Over the course of the book the contributors also reflect on the ways in which revolutionary figures have been repainted as sellouts in particular by the ZANU PF ruling party and what that means for the country s interpretation of their recent past Highlighting in particular the expertise of leading scholars from within Zimbabwe across a range of disciplines this book will be of interest to researchers of African history politics and postcolonial studies

Religion and Social Marginalization in Zimbabwe Togarasei, Lovemore, Bishau, David, Chitando,

Ezra, 2020-07-13 Marginalization means being disregarded ostracized harassed disliked persecuted or generally looked down upon Marginalized people often include women and children the poor the disabled sexual religious or ethnic minorities refugees The marginalized are those who are socially politically culturally or economically excluded from main stream society In history the Church in Zimbabwe has played a role in improving the lives of the marginalized but what is religion especially

Christianity doing for the marginalized now Although religion is also implicated in marginalisation the contributions in this volume did not address this angle as they focused on the role that religion can and should play to fight marginalization The chapters come from two conferences 2012 2014 that were held under the flag of ATISCA The contributions have been updated to include later developments and publications

Rethinking Securities in an Emergent Technoscientific New World Order Munyaradzi Mawere, Artwell Nhemachena, 2018-03-13 The emergent technoscientific New World Order is being legitimised through discourses on openness and inclusivity The paradox is that openness implies vulnerability and insecurities particularly where closure would offer shelter While some actors including NGOs preach openness of African societies Africans clamour for protection restitution and restoration Africans struggle for ownership and access to housing for national cultural religious economic and social belonging that would offer them the necessary security and protection including protection from the global vicissitudes and matrices of power In the presence of these struggles to presuppose openness would be to celebrate vulnerability and insecurities This book examines ways in which emergent technologies expose Africans and more generally peoples of the global south to political economic social cultural and religious shocks occasioned by the coloniality of the global matrices of power It notes that there is the use by global elites of technologies to incite postmodern revolutions designed to compound the vicissitudes and imponderables in the already unsettled lives of people north and south Particularly targeted by these technologies are African and other governments that do not cooperate in the fulfilment of the interests of the hegemonic global elites The book is handy to students and practitioners in security studies African studies development studies global studies policy studies and political science

Making Politics in Zimbabwe's Second Republic Gordon Moyo, Kirk Helliker, 2023-05-16 The book provides a fresh and innovative interpretation of the new government of Zimbabwe led by Emmerson Mnangagwa which emerged in late 2017 after the downfall of Robert Mugabe It demonstrates the contradictory character of the Mnangagwa government involving both continuities and discontinuities in relation to Mugabe's regime The temptation amongst Zimbabwean scholars has been to focus on the continuities and to dismiss the significance of any discontinuities notably reform measures This book adopts an alternative approach by identifying and focusing specifically on the existence of a formative project of the Mnangagwa's Second Republic further analysing its political significance as well as risks and limitations While doing so the book covers topics such as reform measures reconciliation transitional justice corruption the media agriculture devolution and the debt crisis as well as health and education Discussing the limitations of these different reform measures the book highlights that any scholarly failure to identify the risks of the project leads to an incomplete understanding of what constitutes the Mnangagwa's Second Republic The book appeals to students scholars and researchers of Zimbabwean and African studies political science and international relations as well as policymakers interested in a better understanding of political reform processes

Religion and Sexuality in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Francis Machingura, 2022-12-06 Religion and Sexuality in Zimbabwe highlights the complex interplay between religion and sexuality in Zimbabwe It shows how religion both facilitates and complicates the expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe Approaching religion from a broader perspective this volume reviews the impact of African Indigenous Religions and Christianity in its varied forms on the construction and expression of sexuality in Zimbabwe These contributors examine the role of indigenous beliefs as well as interpretations of sacred texts in the understanding of sexuality in Zimbabwe They also address themes relating to sexual diversity and sexual and gender based violence Overall this book sheds light on the ongoing relevance and strategic role of religion to contemporary discourses on human sexuality

Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly

Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists

Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power including the intrinsic and or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals communities and or groups in order to transform society Reflections are on various groups such as political movements environmental movements religious groups advocacy groups gender groups to mention but a few as they struggle against marginalization discrimination exploitation and other forms of oppression showing their agency or compliance

Electoral Politics in Zimbabwe, Volume I Esther Mavengano, Sophia Chirongoma, 2023-04-28 Volume one of Electoral Politics in Zimbabwe pays special attention to the overarching view that the 2023 harmonized elections define the fate of the major presidential contenders and their parties as well as re shaping the political and economic trajectories of the nation Cognizant of the complex nature of the Zimbabwean political realm and nuanced dynamics at play the chapters in this volume cover three interrelated themes the electoral environment in Zimbabwean politics language politics and elections in Zimbabwe and lastly electoral institutions and human rights in Zimbabwean politics The chapters foreground the ongoing tensions and politicking between the two main rivals the ruling party ZANU PF and the main opposition party the Citizens Coalition for Change CCC The contributors also highlight the impact of internal tensions and factionalism within the contending parties the apparent voter apathy disconcerting voices due to claims about lack of transparency and a toxic political space as factors impacting on the outcome of the 2023 presidential elections The volume will appeal to academics and practitioners in politics human rights religion gender media languages linguistics and development studies Remembering Colonialism in Zimbabwe Ivan Marowa,Ushehwedu

Kufakurinani,2023-12-14 This book examines the various ways in which colonialism in Zimbabwe is remembered looking both at how people analyse perceive and interpret the past and how they rewrite that past elevating some players and their historical agency Inspired by the ongoing movement on decoloniality this book examines the ways in which generations of today question and challenge colonialism s legacies and their role in Zimbabwe s collective memories and history The book analyses the memorialising of both Mugabe and Mnangagwa in their speeches and during the political transition before going on to trace the continuing impact of colonialism across areas as diverse as dress code place naming agriculture religion gender and in marginalised communities such as the BaKalanga Drawing on the expertise of Zimbabwean scholars this book will appeal to researchers of decolonisation and of African history and memory Paul's Ethics of Reconciliation in Dialogue with Ndebele and Shona Ethnic Cohesion Gusha, Ishanesu Sextus,2022-09-21

The tension between the Ndebele and Shona people dates back to the pre colonial era and this has been one of the major threats to Zimbabwe s peace The book proposes Paul s ethics of reconciliation in the Corinthian correspondence as inspiration for social cohesion between the Ndebele and Shona tribes The volume deploys Pauline key symbols Christ the Cross of Christ Ambassador New Creation and Baptism as epistemological lenses in promoting identity tags that go beyond ethnicity For these symbols to be effective the author proposes setting up of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC refraining from using ethnic offensive language introduction of Ndebele and Shona languages in schools substituting ethnic provincial names with neutral ones substituting ethnic registration system of people with a neutral one and the devolution of power Transnational Land Grabs and

Restitution in an Age of the (De-)Militarised New Scramble for Africa: A Pan African Socio-Legal V. Warikandwa,Artwell Nhemachena,2017-09-26 One of the fundamental challenges in deconstructing rethinking and remaking the world from a Pan African vantage point is that some captives have tended to delight in the warmth of the imperial predators mouth In other words some captives forget that the imperial predators mouth gets warm because empire is eating and heating up from prey on the continent De Militarisation Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the New Scramble for Africa A Pan

African Socio Legal Perspective is a book that knocks on key aspects relating to land militarisation a PostAfrican World Order and a chaotic Post God World Order which require critical scholarly and policy attention in the quest to free Africa from centuries old imperial depredations The book carefully navigates the imperial entrapments which are designed to focus African attention only on decolonising African minds without also engaging in the imperially more unsettling decolonisation of African materialities

African Studies in the Academy Munyaradzi Mawere,R. Mubaya,2017-08-09 For a long time African Studies as a discipline has been spearheaded by academics and institutions in the Global North This puts African Studies on the continent at a crossroads of making choices on whether such a discipline can be legitimately accepted as an epistemological discipline seeking objectivity and truth about Africa and the African peoples or a discipline meant to perpetuate the Norths hegemonic socio economic political and epistemic control over Africa The compound question that immediately arises is Who should produce what and which space should African Studies occupy in the academy both of the North and of the South Confronted by such a question one wonders whether the existence of African Studies Centres in the Global North academics open opportunities for critical thinking on Africa or it opens possibilities for the emergence of the same discipline in Africa as a fertile space for trans disciplinary debate While approaches critical for the development of African Studies are pervasive in African universities through fields such as cultural studies social anthropology history sociology indigenous knowledge studies and African philosophy the discipline of African Studies though critical to Africa is rarely practised as such in the African academy and its future on the continent remains bleak African Studies in the Academy is a testimony that if honestly and objectively practised the crossroads position of African Studies as a discipline makes it a fertile ground for generating and testing new approaches critical for researching and understanding Africa It also challenges Africa to seriously consider assuming its legitimate position to champion African Studies from within These issues are at the heart of the present volume

Displacement, Elimination and Replacement of Indigenous People Jairo Kangira,Artwell Nhemachena,2019-02-19 Colonial scholars have taken immense pleasure in portraying Africans as possessed by spirits but as lacking possession and ownership of their resources including land Erroneously deemed to be thoroughly spiritually possessed but lacking senses of material possession and ownership of resources Africans have been consistently dispossessed and displaced from the era of enslavement through colonialism to the neocolonial era Delving into the historiography of dispossession and displacement on the continent of Africa and in particular in Zimbabwe this book also tackles contemporary forms of dispossession and displacement manifesting in the ongoing transnational corporations land grabs in Africa wherein African peasants continue to be dispossessed and displaced Focusing on the topical issues around dispossession and repossession of land and the attendant displacements in contemporary Zimbabwe the book theorises displacements from a decolonial Pan Africanist perspective and it also unpacks various forms of displacements corporeal noncorporeal cognitive spiritual genealogical and linguistic displacements among others The book is an excellent read for scholars from a variety of disciplines such as Geography Sociology Social Anthropology History Linguistics Development Studies Science and technology Studies Jurisprudence and Social Theory Law and Philosophy The book also offers intellectual grit for policy makers and implementers civil society organisations including activists as well as thinkers interested in decolonisation and transformation

Civil Society and the Party-state in Zimbabwe Zenzo Moyo, 2024-08-21 The book utilises Gramsci's concepts of hegemony counter hegemony organic intellectuals and integral state to interrogate how modes of engagement between the state and civil society have contributed to a polarised polity in Zimbabwe and in turn how this has impacted democratisation processes This was achieved by analysing intra civil society interactions and state civil society relations which established deep polarised relationships that can be traced back to the liberation struggle It also interrogates ideologies that drive these polarised relations and how together with material benefits from donors and the party state these relations impact ordinary people's modes of existence One of the arguments that emerge from the book is that political polarisation in Zimbabwe has now morphed into an established political culture that has played a huge role in the retardation of democratic struggles It uses ideas of entangled modernities and travelling theory to cast doubt on the belief that civil society is the missing key in the democratisation of developing countries

The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe's ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics

Natural Resource-Based Conflicts in Rural Zimbabwe Joshua Matanzima, 2024-08-02 This book investigates the range of conflicts over land and other natural resources in contemporary Zimbabwe considering the different forms these conflicts take and the ensuing outcomes Zimbabwe is a country rich in natural resources including land wildlife minerals and water resources These resources are integral to the formal and informal livelihoods of most Zimbabweans as well as supporting many key industries Wildlife land and water resources are also embedded in indigenous knowledge systems religious beliefs and rituals in many rural communities forming an important part of people's identity and sense of belonging. However, this book demonstrates the ways in which rural communities are being denied access to these resources and being displaced by extractive companies and the government. Their response is often to turn to violence to try to reclaim their lands. Drawing on original empirical research from different conflicts across Zimbabwe, the book also considers the issue in the context of problems such as climate change, human-wildlife conflicts, and politico-economic crises. This book will be useful to policy makers, students, conservationists, and academics across the fields of sociology, human geography, development, political science, and environment studies.
