Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists

Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 2 Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, 2022-08-26 This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion women s sexual reproductive health and rights SRHR and the sustainable development goals SDGs in Zimbabwe It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women s SRHR The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030

Resilience Under Siege Ezra Chitando, Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Government Phiri, 2016-04-26 This volume explores the challenges and solutions experienced within Zimbabwe s economic and social spheres with particular reference to the crisis years 2000 2008 and the promising turn 2009 2012 This latter phase was prompted by the formation of the Government of National Unity GNU The contributors to the volume pay attention to how individuals and institutions sought to respond to the crisis critiquing the reactions of various actors and exploring solutions to the various challenges that were experienced Chapters in this book include reviews of agricultural subsidies a gendered approach to poverty the collapse of service delivery including a particular focus on education the look East policy the expansion of the religious sector and the experiences of Zimbabwean migrants in South Africa Underlying these contributions are the concepts of resilience and agency The authors all highlight the massive challenges that individuals and institutions had to navigate and acknowledge the creativity deployed in such quests This book will appeal to scholars in economics history and economic history religious studies education and political science as well as the general reader Language Policies and Educational Practices Saraswati Saini, 2025-01-03 Language Policies and Educational Practices explores the critical role of language policies in education systems Language is a fundamental tool for communication shaping our thoughts and interactions This book examines how language policies determine the medium of instruction at various educational levels focusing on the practicalities and challenges of these policies We highlight the importance of local languages in contributing to a country's social political and economic development emphasizing their vital role in education Using case studies we analyze how local language policies are implemented by teachers the challenges they face and practical solutions to these challenges The book also discusses the need for refresher courses for teachers and training for translators From the 1960s the federal government encouraged and sometimes mandated the use of non English languages in education This book covers significant legislative milestones such as the Bilingual Education Act of 1968 the Native American Languages Act of 1990 and other federal programs promoting language diversity and literacy

Museums as Agents for Social Change Njabulo Chipangura, Jesmael Mataga, 2021-04-11 Museums as Agents for Social Change is the first comprehensive text to examine museum practice in a decolonised moment moving beyond known roles of object collection and presentation Drawing on studies of Mutare museum a regional museum in Eastern Zimbabwe this book considers how museums with inherited colonial legacies are dealing with their new environments The book provides an examination of Mutare museum's activism in engaging with topical issues affecting its surrounding community and Chipangura and Mataga demonstrate how new forms of engagement are being deployed to attract new audiences whilst dealing with issues such as economic livelihoods poverty displacement climate change and education Illustrating how recent programmes have helped to reposition Mutare museum as a decolonial agent of social change and an important community anchor institution the book also demonstrates how other museums can move beyond the colonial preoccupation with the gathering of collections conservation and presentation of cultural heritage to the public Museums as Agents for Social Change will primarily be of interest to academics and students working in the fields of museum and heritage studies history archaeology and anthropology It should also be appealing to museum professionals around the world who are interested in learning more about how to decolonise their museum

The Fourth Industrial Revolution and the Recolonisation of Africa Everisto Benyera, 2021-04-29 This book argues that the fourth industrial revolution the process of accelerated automation of traditional manufacturing and industrial practices via digital technology will serve to further marginalise Africa within the international community In this book the author argues that the looting of Africa that started with human capital and then natural resources now continues unabated via data and digital resources looting Developing on the notion of Coloniality of Data the fourth industrial revolution is postulated as the final phase which will conclude Africa's peregrination towards recolonisation Global cartels networks of coloniality and tech multinational corporations have turned big data into capital which is largely unregulated or poorly regulated in Africa as the continent lacks the strong institutions necessary to regulate the mining of data Written from a decolonial perspective this book employs three analytical pillars of coloniality of power knowledge and being Highlighting the crippling continuation of asymmetrical global power relations this book will be an important read for researchers of African studies politics and international political economy The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003157731> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
