

Similes & Metaphors in Song Lyrics

Choose the correct answer.

I'm on your side when times get tough,
And friends just can't be found,
Like a bridge over
troubled water,
I will lay me down.

Choose the correct answer.

I'm already there
Take a look around,
I'm the sunshine in your heart.

Choose the correct answer.

I can fly higher than an eagle,
For you are the wind
beneath my wings.

Iain M. Duguid

Songs With Similes And Metaphors 2014:

Song of Songs Adele Berlin, 2025-01-07 Berlin approaches the Song of Songs as a Jewish Hellenistic work of love poetry She notes Greek ideas throughout the book and shows how they have been adjusted into Jewish thought and literary forms Going beyond previous studies this volume emphasizes that the Song's blending of the Jewish and the Greek is part of its literary virtuosity

The Song of Songs Iain M. Duguid, 2015-02-13 Iain Duguid's Tyndale Old Testament Commentary explains how the Song of Songs is designed to show us an idealized picture of married love It also convicts us of how far short of this perfection we fall both as humans and as lovers and drives us repeatedly into the arms of our true heavenly husband Jesus Christ

Sex and Gender in Pop/Rock Music Walter Everett, 2023-05-04 Following the 1960's sexual revolution rock and pop have continued to map the societal understanding of sexuality feminism and gender studies Although scholarship has well established how early rock and roll encouraged and affected issues of sex in the baby boomer generation this book asks how subsequent pop music has maintained that tradition The text discusses the gendered performances and biographical experiences of individual musicians including Patti Smith Rufus Wainwright Etta James and Frank Ocean and how their invented personae contribute to musical representations of sexuality It evaluates lyric structure and symbolic language of these artists and overall emphasizes how pop music while a commodity art form reflects the diversity of human sex and gender

Collective Memory and Collective Identity Johannes Unsok Ro, Diana Edelman, 2021-03-08 Collective memory has attracted the attention and discussion of scholars internationally across academic disciplines over the past 40-50 years in particular It and collective identity have become important issues within Hebrew Bible Old Testament studies the role collective memory plays in shaping collective identity links the two organically Research to date on memory within biblical studies broadly falls under four approaches 1 lexical studies 2 discussions of biblical historiography in which memory is considered a contributing element 3 topical explorations for which memory is an organizing concept and 4 memory and transmission studies The sixteen contributors to this volume provide detailed investigations of the contours of collective memory and collective identity that have crystallized in Martin Noth's Deuteronomistic History Deut 2 Kgs Together they yield diverse profiles of collective memory and collective identity that draw comparatively on biblical ancient Near eastern and classical Greek material employing one of more of the four common approaches This is the first volume devoted to applying memory studies to the Deuteronomistic History

Conquered Conquerors Danilo Verde, 2020-12-01 The first comprehensive study of the Song of Songs use of military metaphors Although love transcends historical and cultural boundaries its conceptualizations linguistic expressions and literary representations vary from culture to culture In this study Danilo Verde examines love through the military imagery found throughout the Song's eight chapters Verde approaches the military metaphors similes and scenes of the Song using cognitive metaphor theory to explore the overlooked representation of love as war Additionally this book investigates how the Song conceptualizes both the male and the female characters showing that the concepts of masculinity and femininity are tightly interconnected in the poem Conquered Conquerors provides fresh insights into the Song's figurative language and the conceptualization of gender in biblical literature 2014

Lanka's Global Factory Workers Sandya Hewamanne,2016-06-17 In Sri Lanka the Free Trade Zone FTZ employs thousands of unmarried rural women and their migration has aroused deep anxieties over female morality and ideal conduct This book focuses on the global factory workers based in the FTZ and analyzes intersections of gender class and sexuality by looking at the sexual lives and struggles of the female workers Exploring the alternative sexual world created by Sri Lanka s female global factory workers who engage in practices such as premarital sex unmarried cohabitation and to a lesser extent lesbianism that mainstream Sinhalese Buddhist culture considers taboo the author demonstrates that the articulations of good and bad women in relation to sexual behavior has rendered global workers sexual lives unutterable leading to zones of silence contradictory articulations and performances Taking the reader into the forbidden zones of sexual discourses choices acts and texts enacted and expressed in visible arenas yet remain unseen unread or misread by onlookers the book critically investigate how cultural economic and political processes are implicated in the construction and expression of working class female sexualities An important contribution to the field of gender studies the book addresses issues surrounding sexuality particularly how it is shaped by global production networks as well as patriarchal nationalist projects It is of interest to students and scholars of South Asian Studies and Gender Studies Document Analysis and Recognition - ICDAR 2023

Gernot A. Fink,Rajiv Jain,Koichi Kise,Richard Zanibbi,2023-08-18 This six volume set of LNCS 14187 14188 14189 14190 14191 and 14192 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 17th International Conference on Document Analysis and Recognition ICDAR 2021 held in San Jos CA USA in August 2023 The 53 full papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 316 submissions and are presented with 101 poster presentations The papers are organized into the following topical sections Graphics Recognition Frontiers in Handwriting Recognition Document Analysis and Recognition Technological Animation in Classical Antiquity Tatiana Bur,Maria Gerolemou,Isabel Ruffell,2024-09-24 The persistent desire to animate inanimate objects has been a recurring theme in European culture dating back to ancient Greek and Roman times

Technological Animation in Classical Antiquity aims to establish for the first time the significance of this aspiration and its practical realization within Greek and Roman societies While certain aspects of this narrative have been explored previously this study shifts the focus to place technological animation at the forefront The sixteen chapters examine the tangible existence of such devices across various media and considers their roles in diverse contexts delving into the reciprocal relationship between technological and material realities and its influence on the concept of animation and vice versa By adopting this perspective technological animation not only provides a new understanding of the processes behind animation but also lends a fresh perspective to the animated artifact In contrast to other types of animation where the technologically animated artifact is often dismissed as a perceptual error induced for instance by rhetoric or magic this study separates technological animation from notions of rhetorical or magical skills theurgy or divine intervention Specifically it concentrates on a subset of artificial animation solely produced through technical procedures exploring how various motive forces actively contributed to giving objects agency and impacting their viewers illuminating how the material conditions of the artifacts themselves played a role in the process of technological animation whether through the distinctive materiality of bronze or the design of a statuette s hinge Constituent and Pattern in Poetry Archibald A. Hill,2014-07-03 Constituent and Pattern in Poetry is a collection of essays on literature and language It is built on the assumption that works of literature have existence in the real world and that they may be analyzed in a fashion that is not totally subjective Using models derived from structural linguistics Archibald A Hill presents a number of theoretical contributions to the study of poetry as well as new ways of looking at specific poems The book as a whole provides an overview of the tools and ideas Hill has developed for analyzing works of literature and it is the first time the essays have been gathered together in one volume The book is divided into three sections Definition of Literature and Study of Its Patterns Types of Meaning and Imagery and Principles for Interpreting Meaning Each section opens with a theoretical essay followed by three essays that work analytically with specific poets and poems using the methods defined in the first In his examination of such poets as Hopkins Browning Milton Blake Keats and Dickinson Hill uses such proposals as the law of least lexical contribution and maximal contextual contribution the hypothesis that when possible meanings occur together in a cluster they support each other and the idea that it is sometimes possible to recover underlying language sequences from which the author has departed for identifiable reasons By applying these suppositions to the study of particular poems Hill shows how the reader may arrive at statements about the relative artistic merit of works of literature

Metaphor Denis Donoghue,2014-04-22 Metaphor supposes that an ordinary word could have been used but instead something unexpected appears The point of a metaphor is to enrich experience by bringing different associations to mind by giving something a different life The prophetic character of metaphor Denis Donoghue says changes the world by changing our sense of it Thinking through Children's Literature in the Classroom Agustín Reyes-Torres,Luis S. Villacañas-de-Castro,Betlem Soler Pardo,2014-06-30 This book is the result of understanding literature as a central part of children s education Fiction and nonfiction literary works constitute a source to open young minds and to help them understand how and why people themselves included live as they do or to question through critical lenses whether they could live otherwise By integrating philological cultural and pedagogical inquiries Thinking through Children s Literature in the Classroom approaches the use of literature as a crucial factor to motivate students not only to improve their literacy skills but also to develop their literary competence one that prepares them to produce independent and sensible interpretations of the world Of course the endeavor of forming young readers and fostering their ability to think begins primarily by having well read teachers who are enthusiastic about teaching and secondly by having students who are willing to learn To encourage and sustain them through the critical turns of their own thinking processes educators must surely display a sound pedagogic knowledge apart from deep literary expertise

Language and World Creation in Poems and Other Texts Elena Semino,2014-09-25 Language and World Creation in Poems and Other Texts introduces an interdisciplinary and practical approach to the analysis of poetry which focuses on text worlds namely the contexts scenarios or types of reality that readers construct in their interaction with the language of texts

The book demonstrates in detail three ways of approaching poetic text worlds namely as discourse situations possible worlds and mental constructs Clear and detailed introductions to linguistic theories of definiteness and deixis possible world theory and schema theory are included making the book accessible to readers who are unfamiliar with these frameworks

Chase for Cocaine's High at All Time Low Tommy Khoa Dang Lieu, Law enforcement around the world have put a strangle hold on the cocaine industry As a result drastic changes in the potency and physical properties of the cocaine available in the eastern Canadian market have occurred over the past 25 years Not only have there been changes to the drug itself but these changes have also resulted in transformation of the behaviour of users and the areas of Toronto and other major world cities affected by cocaine trafficking and use The bottom line The cocaine available today is measurably less potent and of a far lesser quality than that available in the past And this deterioration is only going to continue as global trends suggest that it will be next to impossible to produce cocaine of the same potency as 25 years ago particularly due to the success and progress of law enforcement across the globe Tommy Khoa Dang Lieu chronicles his experiences in the cocaine and drug trade weaving a compelling argument that combines lived experience with hard data to paint a picture of the decline of the once lucrative cocaine industry

Exegesis and Poetry in Medieval Karaite and Rabbanite Texts Joachim Yeshaya, Elisabeth Hollender, 2016-09-27 This collection of essays offers an inquiry into the complex interaction between exegesis and poetry that characterized medieval and early modern Karaite and Rabbanite treatment of the Bible in the Islamic world the Byzantine Empire and Christian Europe Discussing a variety of topics that are usually associated with either exegesis or poetry in conjunction with the two fields the authors analyze a wide array of interactions between biblical sources and their interpretive layers whether in prose exegesis or in multiple forms of poetry and rhymed prose Of particular relevance are mechanisms for the production and transmission of exegetical traditions including the participation of Jewish poets in these processes an issue that serves as a leitmotif throughout this collection
