perspective of a practicing painter and art critic Schor's writing has been widely read over the past fifteen years in Artforum Art Journal Heresies and M E A N I N G a journal she coedited Collected here these essays challenge established hierarchies of the art world of the 1980s and 1990s and document the intellectual and artistic development that have marked Schor's own progress as a critic Bridging the gap between art practice artwork and critical theory Wet includes some of Schor's most influential essays that have made a significant contribution to debates over essentialism Articles range from discussions of contemporary women artists Ida Applebroog Mary Kelly and the Guerrilla Girls to Figure Ground an examination of utopian modernism's fear of the goo of painting and femininity From the provocative Representations of the Penis which suggests novel readings of familiar images of masculinity and introduces new ones to Appropriated Sexuality a trenchant analysis of David Salle's depiction of women Wet is a fascinating and informative collection Complemented by over twenty illustrations the essays in Wet reveal Schor's remarkable ability to see and to make others see art in a radically new light The Impossible Observer Robert W.
