Interpersonal Communication Owen Hargie, 2016-10-04 There is a fundamental powerful and universal desire amongst humans to interact with others People have a deep seated need to communicate and the greater their ability in this regard the more satisfying and rewarding their lives will be The contribution of skilled interpersonal communication to success in both personal and professional contexts is now widely recognised and extensively researched As such knowledge of various types of skills and of their effects in social interaction is crucial for effective interpersonal functioning Previous editions have established Skilled Interpersonal Communication as the foremost textbook on communication This thoroughly revised and expanded 6th edition builds on this success to provide a comprehensive and up to date review of the current research theory and practice in this popular field of study The first two chapters introduce the reader to the nature of skilled interpersonal communication and review the main theoretical perspectives Subsequent chapters provide detailed accounts of the fourteen main skill areas namely nonverbal communication reinforcement questioning reflecting listening explaining self disclosure set induction closure assertiveness influencing negotiating and interacting in and leading group discussions Written by one of the foremost international experts in the field and founded solidly in research this book provides a key reference for the study of interpersonal communication This theoretically informed yet practically oriented text will be of interest both to students of interpersonal communication in general and to qualified personnel and trainees in many fields Proceedings of The 9th MAC 2017 group of authors, 2017-02-23 The 9th Multidisciplinary Academic Conference in Prague 2017 Czech Republic Cultural Conceptualizations in Language and Communication Barbara Lewandowska-Tomaszczyk, 2020-06-10

The book comprises a selection of papers concerning the general theme of cultural conceptualizations in language The focus of Part 1 which includes four papers is on Metaphor and Culture discussing general as well as language specific metaphoricality Part 2 which also includes three papers is on Cultural Models dealing with phenomena relating to family and home nation and kinship blood and death in different cultures Six papers in Part 3 which refers to questions of Identity and Cultural Stereotypes both in general language and in literature discuss identity in native and migration contexts and take up motifs of journey and migration as well as social and cultural stereotypes and prejudice in transforming contexts Three papers in the last Part 4 of the book Linguistic Concepts Meanings and Interaction focus on the semantic interpretation of the changes and differences which occur in their intra as well as inter linguistic contexts

Cultural Linguistics and Critical Discourse Studies Monika Reif, Frank Polzenhagen, 2023-11-15 The present volume explores the meeting ground between Critical Discourse Studies and Cultural Linguistics The contributions investigate culture specific conceptualisations ways of framing and conceptual metaphors in political discourse as well as cultural models cultural stereotypes and stereotyping The individual authors use quantitative e g corpus based approaches and or qualitative methods They address a range of contexts e g Europe the US Japan West Africa and a variety of topics e g migration presidential elections identity food culture concepts of health The papers included in this volume show that ideologies the key concern of Critical Discourse Studies cannot be analysed independently of cultural conceptualisations In a complementary dialectic fashion cultural conceptualisation the central concern of Cultural Linguistics have ideological implications sometimes subtle sometimes very straightforward The present volume thus illustrates that travelling on this meeting ground is a natural and fruitful endeavour for both approaches

Cultural Conceptualizations in Translation and Language Applications Barbara Lewandowska-Tomaszczyk, 2020-04-08 The book comprises a selection of 14 papers concerning the general theme of cultural conceptualizations in communication and translation as well as in various applications of language Ten papers in first part Translation and Culture cover the topics of a cognitive approach to conceptualizations of Source Language versus Target Language texts in translation derived from general language media texts and literature The second part Applied Cultural Models comprises four papers discussing cultural conceptualizations of language in the educational context particularly of Foreign Language Teaching in online communication and communication in deaf communities
