Nineteenth Century Victoria University (Toronto, Ont.). Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies, 2003 The nineteenth century witnessed rapid economic and social developments profound political and intellectual upheaval and startling innovations in art and literature As Europeans peered into an uncertain future they drew upon the Renaissance for meaning precedents and identity Many claimed to find inspiration or models in the Renaissance but as we move across the continent's borders and through the century's decades we find that the Renaissance was many different things to many different people This collection brings together the work of sixteen authors who examine the many Renaissances conceived by European novelists and poets artists and composers architects and city planners political theorists and politicians businessmen and advertisers The essays fall into three groups Aesthetic Recoveries of Strategic Pasts The Renaissance in

Reflective Society Riccardo Pozzo, 2021-10-25 This book is about innovation reflection and inclusion Cultural innovation is something real that tops up social and technological innovation by providing the reflective society with spaces of exchange in which citizens engage in the process of sharing their experiences while appropriating common goods content We are talking of public spaces such as universities academies libraries museums science centres but also of any place in which co creation activities may occur The argument starts with the need for new narratives in the history of philosophy which can be established through co creation the motor of cultural innovation The result is redefining the history of philosophy in terms of a dialogical civilization by ensuring continuous translations individual processes of reflection and collective processes of inclusion Readers will grasp the effectiveness of the history of philosophy in societies that are inclusive innovative and
