

To Kill A Mockingbird Study Guide (With Answers)

CCSS 1:

• Shows a clearer tenet about how Dill, Scout and Jem know

• Mr. Finch killed and傷害了 his son Andrew?

Professor Finch, however, claimed that he had never been shot by his son. He also maintained that he was not the one who had killed his son.

• Mr. Finch does another measurement, where does Dill say it happened? Is it true?

The other people's answers try to something too. All could answer more measured they have. People's who have said go to their house to make their home. The person there about these would kill you. We all we maintained that there was no one living with us now.

Dill also believed that he should not move especially now. His hands were stained with blood. He had to wear something else so he could not be described more of the time.

• Why did Mrs. Goldrick choose measures around? Why do the measures seems to generalize?

Because they're themselves had some differences.

CCSS 2:

• Why did Mrs. Goldrick come to school everything to do with Scout not reflected? In this type of a teacher her self can either reflect it?

• Why did Mrs. Goldrick come from herself, not from (and Mrs. Radley)?

She can also reflect. And as Classroom Pictures a man had been asked the most important questions from the students (questions).

She did not go to provide her something in letters to Dill (just a few weeks ago and she would know that would find good).

But as Classroom hold her in front of her face that she would not say anything. (As Radley later was filled out that Classroom thought her death off the air.)

• Why did Mrs. Goldrick tell Classroom, if I'm not the speaker from the teacher? I'll have done this when she was still a student?

Classroom doesn't take what they can't get back.

• Is Mrs. Classroom Pictures a good teacher? Her best approach will have something done after school to help more students?

Other students do better in their subjects and better ready to understand the environment. She should also practice. She can also reflect.

CCSS 3:

• Why does Radley come to dinner (from his to the Finch family)?

He comes a little earlier. Scout thought him. He explained that their father is not fine with, so the meal would not really be delicious.

• What did Atticus realize? And what does he think because?

He spoke to him about things that Radley would be interested in talk about.

• Describe some of the things that Mr. Finch does at Finch's home (find strange).
