

There's a spelling needed from a Mississippi country school.
There's a pocket watch that didn't work, not a clock and not a minimum wage.

Q When the children plan to send a thank you letter to the person leaving the gifts, they are prevented. How does this happen? Why do you think this character told us?
Mr. Fidelity filled in the hole with cement for some reason. It is not very clear why this happened.

Q Why do you think Ann was crying?
He wanted to thank the person who was leaving gift and make a new friend.

Ch 8

Q Why did Scout think the world was ending?
It was morning and she had never seen snow before, (it probably only snows once in a lifetime down in Alabama).

Q What did Miss Maudie do to protect her flowers?
She brought them in the house and kept the stove on. (this causes the fire)

Q Why does Atticus wake up Scout and Jem early in the morning?
Miss Maudie's house is on fire.

Q How did the neighbors help Miss Maudie?
They pushed the fire truck when it wouldn't start and helped to remove her furniture so that it wouldn't burn.

Q What does Atticus tell Jem to tell Scout? What strange thing did they notice when they went back home?
Down the street to get everything the fire (in front of the Fidelity house)
She notices that she has a blanket on, but she didn't notice anyone giving it to her.

Q How did Miss Maudie react to the loss of her house the following day?
She said she always wanted a smaller house. She also said she feels bad that everyone made such a fuss over her and her house. She was also still focused on the children and how they were doing. She still puts others before herself.

Ch 9

Q Why are people saying bad things about Atticus? Why doesn't he do what the teenagers want him to do?
They are angry at him for defending black people.

Q What does Atticus say that he is doing?
He is simply defending a negro named Tom Robinson. He is a member of Calpurnia's church and Cal says that she knows his family well and they are clean living folks.

Q Why does Atticus say that he is defending Tom Robinson?
Because if he didn't he couldn't hold up his head in town, he couldn't represent this country in the legislature and couldn't tell Jem or Scout not to do something again.
(In other words he needs to do what is right)

Q How does Atticus respond when Scout asks "Are we going to win it?"
He says No. Hoober and explains that even though they know they are backed by law they still, its no reason for us not to try and win.

Q How does Atticus say that this court case is different from the Confederate War?
