Critical Adult Education in Food Movements Colin R. Anderson, Rosa Binimelis Adell, Michel P. Pimbert, Marta Rivera Ferre, 2022-11-21 This book focuses on research that shows the importance of critical adult education for the spread of food sovereignty and agroecology to more people and places. It pays particular attention to the important role that learning, education and pedagogy can play in social transformation for food sovereignty and justice, an approach referred to broadly as Learning for Transformation. It reveals common dynamics and principles that critical education for food sovereignty share in different contexts. The book draws together 8 chapters that offer new critical insights about why, where and how learning for transformation is being implemented and what next. Previously published in Agriculture and Human Values Volume 36 issue 3 September 2019 Chapter Transformative agroecology learning in Europe building consciousness, skills and collective capacity for food sovereignty is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com
