Community Policing in Action Peter Stevens, Dianna M. Yach, 1995 Provides practical guidance on the possibilities and barriers to effective implementation of community policing An essential ingredient for success is through consultation in which police are one of the key elements in ensuring community safety in a democratic society Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerman, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country's apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations World Criminal Justice Systems Richard J. career planning and management practical applications of career choice and organizational support practices A glossary of terms has also been included to aid in the comprehension of the concepts related to each chapter Careers in Southern Africa Hermann Spangenberg,1980 Challenges of Policing Democracies Dilip Das,Marenin Otwin,2012-10-12 In this text the editors analyze the diverse situations that police forces operate under and the challenges that they face in different kinds of democracies This cross cultural comparison of various systems highlights the universal observation that police are a anomaly in a democracy and explores how various influences for example large scale social violence a zeal for crime fighting and vulnerability to temptation often find police incapable of behaving in a democratic manner Challenges of Policing Democracies goes beyond just showing the similarities and differences of the policing challenges democratic societies face it also examines the responses and remedies adopted by police in various countries at different levels of democratic achievement and how every society struggles with the challenges of preserving democratic values without sacrificing the effectiveness of policing Deadly Delay: South Africa's Efforts to Prevent HIV in Survivors of Sexual Violence ,2004 Policing and Boundaries in a Violent Society Guy Lamb,2022-01-31 This book explores how social and territorial boundaries have influenced the approaches and practices of the South Africa Police Service SAPS By means of a historical analysis of South Africa this book introduces a new concept police frontierism which illuminates the nature of the relationships between the police policing and boundaries and can potentially be used for future case study research Drawing on a wealth of research this book examines how social and territorial boundaries strongly influenced police practices and behaviour in South Africa and how social delineations amplify and distort existing police prejudices against those communities on the other side of the boundary Focusing on cases of high density police operations public order policing and the recent policing of the COVID 19 lockdown this book argues that poor economic conditions combined with an increased militarisation of the SAPS and a decline in public trust in the police will result in boundaries continuing to fundamentally inform police work in South Africa This book will be of interest to scholars and students interested in policing in post colonial societies characterised by high levels of violence as well as police work and police militarization FCS Theory of Policing Practices L3 , Effective Workplace Solutions Barney Jordaan,2016-08-24 This must have title on employment law in South Africa brings a cool and calm perspective to the often bewildering world of employment relations Looking at the practicalities of labour law employment relations and dispute resolution in an easy and clear manner this title provides clear SOLUTIONS to the problems that line managers HR ER managers and employers are likely to encounter in the workplace Written by two highly experienced practitioners in the field of employment law employment relations and dispute resolution EFFECTIVE WORKPLACE SOLUTIONS is an indispensable guide for anyone who plays an active role in the management of the modern South African work environment Farmer's Weekly ,1928 Maatskaplike en Nijwerheidsblad ,1926 Discrimination Law Sandra Fredman FBA KC,2022-11-28 This book is a challenging thought provoking yet highly accessible introduction to discrimination law It takes a thematic approach illuminating the major issues in discrimination law while imparting an in depth understanding of the strengths and weaknesses of legal responses to complex social problems of inequality This is enhanced by the comparative approach By considering equality law in the UK US India Canada and South Africa as well as the European Union and under the European Convention on Human Rights the book exposes common problems across different jurisdictions and canvasses a variety of differing solutions As in the highly successful previous editions the book locates discrimination law within its historical and social context One of its major strengths is the development of an analytic framework of substantive equality drawing on a range of sources and the author's wide experience of equality law in many jurisdictions As well as chapters charting the social challenges and legal responses the book compares the ways in which different jurisdictions formulate grounds of discrimination or protected characteristics the meaning of key concepts such as direct discrimination disparate treatment indirect discrimination disparate impact and when limitations on equality are legitimate Later chapters test these concepts in some of the most challenging contexts pregnancy and parenting equal pay reasonable accommodation and sexual harassment as well as to the particularly controversial issue of affirmative action or deliberate preference policies Discussing at length how racism sexism LGBTQ rights and other topics impact these contexts The final chapter asks how the right to equality can be made more effective critically assessing the paradigm individual complaints model and possible alternatives from class actions and strategic litigation to mainstreaming and positive duties to promote equality After Dictatorship Peter Hoeres, Hubertus Knabe, 2023-02-20

Numerous studies concerning transitional justice exist However comparatively speaking the effects actually achieved by measures for coming to terms with dictatorships have seldom been investigated There is an even greater lack of transnational analyses This volume contributes to closing this gap in research To this end it analyses processes of coming to terms with the past in seven countries with different experiences of violence and dictatorship Experts have drawn up detailed studies on transitional justice in Albania Argentina Ethiopia Chile Rwanda South Africa and Uruguay Their analyses constitute the empirical material for a comparative study of the impact of measures introduced within the context of transitional justice It becomes clear that there is no sure formula for dealing with dictatorships Successes and deficits alike can be observed in relation to the individual instruments of transitional justice from criminal prosecution to victim compensation Nevertheless the South American states perform much better than those on the African continent This depends less on the instruments used than on political and social factors Consequently strategies of transitional justice should focus more closely on these contextual factors Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration Sandra Mantu, 2016-05-23

Labour migration has been on the agenda of many countries around the globe at the same time as governments of both sending and receiving countries have been trying to develop regulatory mechanisms This book opens the debate on the global politics of labour migration by proposing a re assessment of the interaction between states regarding labour migration

Presenting case specific scholarship from leading experts from five different continents each contribution engages with the changing landscape of migration control and teases out emerging control patterns dynamics and correlations that can be made between them and existing control paradigms The multidisciplinary and global focus in Constructing and Imagining Labour Migration sheds much needed light on the mechanisms deployed by states in their attempts to control labour migration and on the manner in which these mechanisms impact upon migrants themselves leaving some caught up in the politics of labour market control

Maritime Crime and Policing Yarin Eski,Martin Wright,2023-04-28 This book offers a unique and scholarly perspective on a little studied subject maritime crime and policing The seas and oceans cover 70 percent of the earth s surface and 90 percent of world trade by volume travels by sea Furthermore the refugee crisis has produced an inflow of people attempting to find a better life particularly in Northwest Europe and the UK which has had an impact on the maritime domains of European ports While there has been attention paid to the role of maritime policing by scholars in maritime security studies little attention has been paid by criminologists and policing studies scholars This book aims to fill this gap Bringing together a range of international scholars this book covers a variety of topics pertinent to maritime crime and its policing such as fraud piracy and armed robbery at sea illegal and unregulated fishing smuggling people trafficking illegal immigration illegal dumping and pollution arms trafficking terrorism and cargo theft It brings together new perspectives on several key criminological themes such as transnational organised crime criminalisation and securitisation and provides a bold new direction for the landlocked discipline of criminology and policing studies An accessible and compelling read this book will be of interest to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology politics migration studies and all those interested in the policing of the sea
