The Making of London S. Groes,2015-12-04 London has become the focus of a ferocious imaginative energy since the rise of Thatcher The Making of London analyses the body of work by writers who have committed their writing to the many lives of a city undergoing complex transformations tracing a major shift in the representation of the capital city Multiculturalism and Magic Realism in Zadie Smith's Novel White Teeth: Between Fiction and Reality Sylvia Hadjetian,2014-03-20 Since the 1970s there has been increasing concern with the impact of post colonialism on British identities and culture White Teeth by Zadie Smith is the story of three families from three different cultural backgrounds set mostly in multicultural London The first part of this book provides an overview of the former British Empire the Commonwealth and the history of Bangladesh Jamaica and the Jews in England as relevant to White Teeth Following this the role of the former centre of London will be presented Subsequently definitions and postcolonial theories Bhabha Said etc shall be discussed The focus of this book is on life in multicultural London The main aspects analysed in these chapters deal with identity the location where the novel is set and racism A further aim of the book is a comparison between the fictional world of White Teeth and reality One chapter is devoted to the question of magic realism and the novel's position between two worlds In a summary the writer hopes to convince the readers of the fascination felt when reading the novel and when plunging into the buzzing streets of contemporary multicultural London Global Fragments, 2007-01-01

While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refracted figurations of an experience of world wide interconnectedness Remembering Iris

Murdoch J. Meyers, 2013-05-03 This annotated edition of the unpublished letters that Iris Murdoch wrote to Jeffrey Meyers includes her discussion of writers from Conrad to Updike her quarrel with Rebecca West and her difficulty with Alzheimer's With both scholarly insight and personal reflection this volume will deepen our understanding of Murdoch's complex life and work British Literature in Transition, 1980-2000 Eileen Pollard, Berthold Schoene, 2018-12-20

The literature of twentieth century Britain's final twenty years represents a crash course in transitional history In the aftermath of the 1970s the nation's hopes of becoming more efficient were high leading to the fundamental domestic shake up that was Margaret Thatcher's neoliberal revolution 1979-90 Following the end of the Cold War Europe was undergoing radical rejuvenation while the world as a whole began to thrive on new levels of connectivity and proximity brought through rapid advances in communication technology Later in the 1990s Britons were asked to countenance not only internal devolution but also the crystallisation of a brand new European and global order This volume shows how British literature recorded contemporaneous historical change It traces the emergence and evolution of literary trends as well as enduring transitional shifts in genre tone style and thematic preoccupation Cultures in Movement Martine Raibaud, Ionut Untea, Micéala Symington, 2015-02-05 The contributors to this volume encourage a re thinking of the very notion of culture by examining the experiences situations and the representations of those who chose or were forced to change cultures from the nineteenth century to the present day Beyond a simple study of migration forced or otherwise this collective work also re examines the model of integration As recent entrants into new social settings may be perceived as affecting the previously accepted social equilibrium mechanisms encouraging or inhibiting population flows are sometimes put in place From this perspective integration may become less a matter of internal choice than an external obligation imposed by the dominant political power in which case integration may only be a euphemism for cultural uniformity The strategies of cultural survival developed as a reaction to such a rising tide of cultural uniformity can be seen as necessary points of departure for an ever growing shared multiculturalism A long term voluntary commitment to make cultural boundaries more flexible and allow a more engaged individual participation in the process of defining the self and finding its place within a culture in movement may represent a key element for cultural cohesion in a globalized world On the Road to Baghdad, Or, Traveling Biculturalism Gönül Pultar, 2005 About the Book This is a collection of essays on fiction written in English Spanish and Bengali that has emerged recently This fiction is seen to reflect biculturalism that is the amalgam of two cultures that are both hegemonic in their own ways This approach provides insight into the works discussed by uncovering elements of the the seemingly other non Euroculture and elevates both cultures to the same level Authors discussed in the essays include Black British Caryl Phillips Chicana Sandra Cisneros Chinese American Maxine Hong Kingston Cuban American Dolores Prida Danish Izak Dinesen Greek Americans Nikos Papandreu and Catherine Temma Davidson Kenyan Ngugi wa Thiong o Japanese American John Okada New Zealander Patricia Grace Peruvian Jos Maria Arguedas Turkish American G neli G n and contemporary English language Indian authors Vikram Chandra Chitra B Divakaruni Attia Hosain Manju Kapur Arundhati Roy Salman Rushdie as well as Rabindranath Tagore Praise Perhaps only a decade ago such an ambitious world spanning project would have seemed absurd outside a congress of anthropologists or bankers Today it represents a state of the art sensibility reflecting the efforts of an equally vari ous geocultural assembly of scholars The implications for a community of readers not only interested in but competently sensitive to such far flung narrative geographies is equally stunning William Boelhower University of Padua Italy Author of Through a Glass Darkly Ethnic Semiosis in American Literature Encyclopedia of the British Novel Virginia Brackett, Victoria Gaydosik, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition comprehensive Recommended 100 Must-read Prize-Winning Novels Nick Rennison, 2010-09-25 A large number of people each year make their reading decisions on the basis of prizes like the Booker and Orange Guide to Fiction This new title in the successful Must Read series provides an overview of prize winning fiction over the decades With 100 titles fully featured and over 500 read on recommendations this unique survey of literature incorporates some of the finest contemporary fiction ever produced including Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children, Booker Jonathan Coe's What a Carve Up, John Llewellyn Rhys's Andrea Levy's Small Island, Orange Louis de Bernieres's Captain Corelli's Mandolin, Commonwealth Writers Prize Zadie Smith's White Teeth, Guardian First Book Award Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things, Booker As well as Booker and Pulitzer prize winners the book also finds room for those that have triumphed in less familiar prizes such as the Betty Trask and the John Llewellyn Rhys. It looks at prize winners in certain genres such as crime and science fiction as well as prize winners from other countries the French Prix de Goncourt and the Australian Miles Franklin award. Because of the sheer range of prizes across countries and genres this is a diverse and rich list that no book worm would want to be without.

Women in British Chinese Writings Dr Yun-Hua Hsiao, 2014-12-09 British Chinese Writings: Subjectivity, Identity and Hybridity is a study of British Chinese literature. As Dr Hsiao points out, investigation of British Chinese writings is a little studied area, however, since the political, social and historical factors affecting this group of literature are unique, British Chinese publications deserve close examination. The author Dr Yun Hua Hsiao is an assistant professor at the Graduate Institute of Children's English and Department of English, National Changhua University of Education, Taiwan. Readership: The primary market of this book aims at the British Chinese, British people, the diasporic Chinese and readers concerned about the issue of race and culture. This research will also satisfy the curiosity of the general public about the British Chinese world.
