Hinika,2012-07 Guided only by the light of his grandmother s dreams Gudata embarks on an extraordinary journey to quench his thirst for knowledge that in his impressionable mind only America could satisfy In this unique story we encounter the double edged sword of challenge and inspiration Healer s Light Achieving the Impossible demonstrates the difference one person can make in the lives of thousands One does not expect a boy from a tiny village in the hinterlands of Southern Ethiopia to put himself through two bachelors degrees medical school and become a surgeon much less become an instrumental force in the establishment of a prestigious Trauma Center and to be appointed as its leader at a young age All these pale in comparison to the path he takes as he returns to his roots in rural Ethiopia He establishes a school system where none existed for fifty years and goes on to build a health village in a shantytown that time and commerce forgot World Yearbook of Education 2017 Julie Allan,Alfredo J. Artiles,2016-12-01 This latest volume in the World Yearbook of Education series examines the relationship between assessment systems and efforts to advance equity in education at a time of growing inequalities It focuses on the political motives behind the expansion of an assessment industry the associated expansion of an SEN industry and a growth in consequential accountability systems Split into three key sections the first part is concerned with the assessment industry and considers the purpose and function of assessment in policy and politics and the political context in which particular assessment practices have emerged Part II of the book on assessing deviance explores those assessment and identification practices that seek to classify different categories of learners including children with Limited English Proficiency with special needs and disabilities and with behavioural problems The final part of the book considers the consequences of assessment and the possibility of fairer and more equitable alternatives examining the production of inequalities within assessment in relation to race class gender and disability Discussing in detail the complex historical intersections of assessment and educational equity with particular attention to the implications for marginalised populations of students and their families this volume seeks to provide reframings and reconceptualisations of assessment and identification by offering new insights into economic and cultural trends influencing them Co edited by two internationally renowned scholars Julie Allan and Alfredo J Artiles World Yearbook of Education 2017 will be a valuable resource for researchers graduates and policy makers who are interested in the economic trends of global education assessment The Last Normal Child Lawrence H. Diller M.D.,2006-08-30 Behavioral developmental pediatrician Lawrence Diller continues his investigation into the widespread use of psychiatric drugs for children in America an investigation that began with his first book Running on Ritalin In this work at hand Diller delves more deeply into the factors that drive the epidemic of children s psychiatric disorders and medication use today questioning why these medications are being sought and why Americans use more of these drugs with children than is used in any other country in the world There is relentless pressure for performance and success on children as young as three Diller acknowledges but his analysis goes further and his conclusion is both surprising and ironic In the name of preserving children s self esteem American society has become intolerant of minor differences in children s behavior and performance We worry so much about how our children feel about themselves that struggles once within the realm of normal are now considered abnormal indicative of a psychiatric or brain disorder requiring diagnosis and treatment wth psychiatric drugs often for years The Last Normal Child also addresses the role of drug companies in the advertising and promotion of both disorders and drugs The pharmaceutical industry has garnered incredible profits and power in influencing the way we view children today Diller illustrates through vivid and poignant stories of real patients how he together with families make informed decisions about using psychiatric drugs for children Parents educators pediatric and mental health professionals will gain valuable insights tips and tools for navigating what has become a truly perilous trip of childhood for children in America today Experiencing the Lifespan Janet

Belsky,2009-10-23 This book explores the lifespan by combining research with a practicing psychologist s understanding of human development from infancy to old age EdPsych Modules Cheryl Cisero Durwin,Marla Reese-Weber,2016-12-01 Now with SAGE Publications Cheryl Cisero Durwin and Marla Reese Weber s EdPsych Modules uses an innovative implementation of case studies and a modular format to address the challenge of effectively connecting theory and research to practice Each module is a succinct stand alone topic that represents every subject found in traditional chapter texts and can be used in any order for maximum flexibility in organizing your course Each of the book s eight units of modules begins with a set of four case studies early childhood elementary middle school and secondary and ends with Assess and Reflect and Evaluate questions and activities to encourage comprehension and application of the research and theories presented The case approach and the extensive pedagogy that support it allows students to constantly see the applications of the theories and research that they are studying in the text
